GRUNT AND GROAN!

Wrestlers to help senior citizens

By JIM BRADLEY
Roman Staff Writer

Get out the liniment and rubbing oil.

The grunt and groan boys will be in action this Friday night in a big wrestling spectacular at Romulus Senior High School beginning at 8 o'clock.

The championship wrestling match, which features some of the bigger names in the grappling art, is sponsored by the Romulus Senior Citizens Club. Tickets are available for $3 at the door Friday night or by calling Mrs. Wilma Pomeroy at 941-0666, ext. 67 or 326-3974 after working hours.

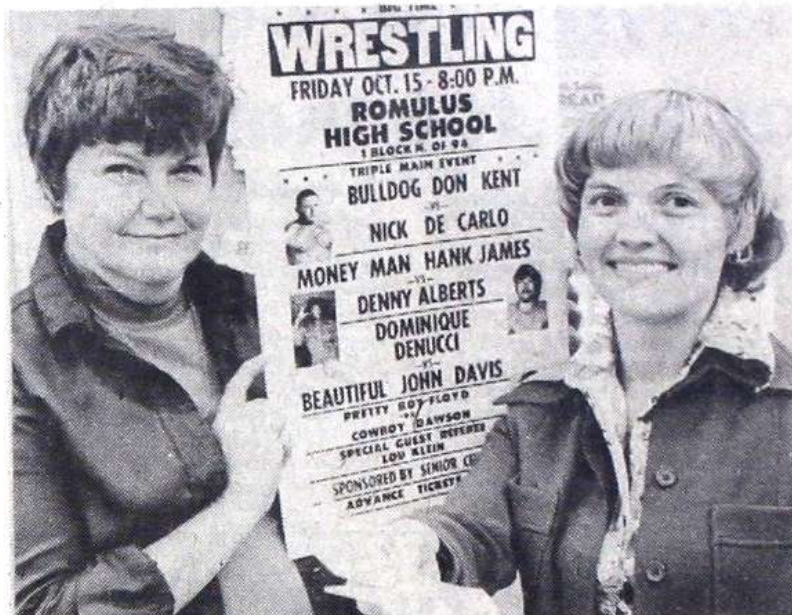

In another special match, Pretty Boy Floyd tangles with Cowboy Dawson.

"We're working hard to make this event a big success," Mrs. Pomeroy said. "The money made through the show will help the senior citizens support their many fine projects."

Mayor James Stewart, who also is selling tickets to help the cause, emphasized the need for people to come out and watch the wrestling event.

"I believe everyone will have a real good time and a lot of fun. And the proceeds go to help our wonderful senior citizens club," he said.

Romulus Senior Citizens Club No. 1 is the oldest club in the city and operates in cooperation with the recreation dept.

Wrestling on their minds

The spectacular big-time wrestling event at Romulus High School, Wayne Road just north of I-94, this Friday at 8 p.m. is being pushed strongly by sponsors Wilma Pomeroy (left) and Joan Haubrich, recreation program director. All proceeds from the grunt and groan matches will go to benefit the projects and work of the Romulus Senior Citizens Club No. 1.

Enrollment down

Romulus may lose some school aid

By JIM CARAVALLAH
Enterprise Staff Writer

Romulus may lose state aid while Van Buren Township may be in line to receive more help from the state in covering their school costs.

With the unofficial "Fourth Friday" student population counts tallied, Romulus shows a net drop of 45 students from the 1975-76 student enrollment while Van Buren shows a net gain of 58 students.

The student count in the Romulus School District has been set at 6,640 this year, with the majority of the 45-student drop from last year's level in the adult education program.

Van Buren's enrollment count is 8,231, with a majority of the gain in the elementary school ranks.

The so-called "Fourth Friday" student population tallies are important to districts because they are used by the state to compute state aid on a per-pupil basis.

However, the impact of the gains and losses cannot be computed yet in terms of amount of aid either gained or lost, since none will be sent to school districts until the end of the 15-month "fiscal year" approved by the state legislature to help balance Michigan's budget.

In previous years, however, state aid accounted for as much as half the total amount of money on a per-pupil basis available to district personnel to cover the cost of education.

Variations of 50 in student population counts could mean as much as a $20,000 gain or loss in funds.

In the Van Buren Schools, the student population tallies were broken down to a grade level, with population in the kindergarten through sixth grade elementary levels coming in at 4,471 for this year compared to 4,456 last year.

At the junior high level (grades seven through nine), the population dropped from 1,955 last year to 1,933 this year.

At the senior high level, the student population is at 1,820 this year, compared to 1,762 last year.

According to Raymond Kohr, director of personnel for the Van Buren School District, officials in all school districts have until this Friday to iron out any discrepancies in the number of students.

The population figures will then be sent to the state, where attendance figures will be used to compute how much money school districts will receive through a new state aid formula.

Sample of things to come

Romulus' new Senior Citizens' Drop-In Center in the recreation building is really getting spruced up these days. Not only as a comfortable television viewing area been completed with a new color console and couches, new carpeting also is in the works. Going over samples are Mayor James Stewart and Marie DeBuysscher, recreation director. Besides the many activities now available, a new regulation pool table will be ready for Friday's open house which will last from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Open house slated for city's seniors

Romulus Mayor James Stewart and other special guests will help kick off an "open house" this Friday at the Romulus Senior Citizens Center, from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The center is located in the rear of the recreation Building at 36545 Bibbins Street across from the post office.

Highlighting the new center will be a brand new regulation-size pool table, a new color television set and beautiful couches in a relaxed setting. New carpeting has been ordered.

"The open house is to acquaint anyone who thinks he can beat him at pool, and many people close to the senior citizens' scene said they wouldn't mind seeing someone beat the mayor in good-natured competition.

Mayor Stewart has challenged anyone who thinks he can beat him at pool, and many people close to the senior citizens' scene said they wouldn't mind seeing someone beat the mayor in good-natured competition.

"Persons who enjoy television, sewing, billiards, cards or reading will have facilities available to them so they can enjoy their favorite pastimes," Mrs. Haubrich said.

"In addition, we'll offer a lunch of soup and crackers with coffee and tea free of charge."

Senior citizens aged 55 years or older are eligible to attend the open house and enjoy the luncheon offered by the city. Also, if any person needs transportation to the center, he or she may call 941-0666, Extension 67, for a free ride.

"We're encouraging everyone to come who possibly can," Mrs. Haubrich said. "There are all kinds of things to do and everyone will have a marvelous time."

Friday's matches will pit Bulldog Don Kent against Mick DeCarlo; Money Man Hank James versus Dennis Albert and Dominic Denucci will try to "mess up" beautiful John Davis in the triple main event.

Well-known wrestler Louie Klein, a long-time favorite in this area, will be guest referee for the events. "Leaping Louie" has grown a beard and looks pretty ferocious, according to latest reports.

Blighted subdivision transformed into 'loving, caring' neighborhood

By JIM BRADLEY
Roman Staff Writer

One of the most rewarding programs now underway in Romulus has been the success in selling blighted, vacant homes in the Meadow Subdivision in the extreme southeast of the city.

Fund the Community Block Grant in School, the Department of Housing and Development (HUD), the drive, as results, in the sale and occupancy of more than 100 vacant houses in the 620-house subdivision south of Eureka Road between Middlebelt and Inkster roads.

"We are really pleased and gratified with the tremendous results that have been accomplished, particularly in the last nine months," said Joyce Palmer, director of the Romulus Neighborhood Center.

"Not only have we removed the blight of unsightly boarded-up houses, but we have been able to place eager families into homes of their choice and have given our subdivision a bright new positive image."

When Mrs. Palmer was appointed director of the Block Grant Program in January, there were 82 vacant homes, mostly HUD homes that were sold under the now-eliminated 235 program, where people could buy a home for practically no money down and the government subsidized their monthly mortgage payment.

Many of the people let their homes deteriorate and the subdivision became shabby and run-down as a result.

"No one contacted HUD when the homes became vacant," Mrs. Palmer pointed out. "As a result, windows were smashed when vandals saw that the homes were empty and much other damage was done. When I was named director, our first goal was to get rid of the blight of abandoned homes."

"It was and is the hope of the City of Romulus and my assistant, Sue Kemp, and I that through our efforts we could make our subdivision a safe place to live."

Mrs. Palmer, who has lived in the subdivision the entire seven years since it was built, wanted to see something done about the situation. Although the Block Grant program was started in October, 1975, nothing much was done according to Mrs. Palmer, until January of this year.

The city purchased a HUD house, renovated it and made it into the Neighborhood Center office where Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Kemp, also a resident of the area, have their headquarters at 28327 Leroy St.

"I believe installing the Neighborhood Office right in the subdivision was the major catalyst in getting this program moving," she continued. "When people saw that the city was taking positive steps to reverse the downward trend, we began to see startling results."

Today, we only have 12 unsold homes in the entire 620-home subdivision, nine of which are HUD homes and the other three VA homes.

Mrs. Palmer contacted HUD, and working with the realty specialist in the housing management department and other agencies, she was able to get the properties listed on the market. This gave potential buyers quicker access to houses.

"Many times I will take these persons and show the homes to them personally," said Mrs. Palmer, who assumes a "Mother Hen" type of role in the situation.

She makes constant tours through the Meadows to check the security of any vacant houses and is on the lookout for any people who are moving in or out. This way, she says, she is able to keep the place up-to-date file on the house and not let any vacated homes become damaged. She contacts HUD immediately and they send out personnel to secure the homes with thick boards on the windows until the new buyer occupies it.

The rewarding part comes in the personal "thank yous" and the letters of gratitude from couples Mrs. Palmer has helped buy homes. As director of the Neighborhood Service Center, Mrs. Palmer sends out a monthly newsletter in the subdivision, provides activities for the children with the help of other city recreation and social services.

The Neighborhood Center is doing so many things that not all of them can be listed. But the major outcome of Mrs. Palmer's dedicated work the past nine months is the building a blighted area into a loving, caring neighborhood of people who help one another.

One young couple's home was totally burned by fire and the residents responded in such an overwhelming way that Mrs.

Palmer called it "fantastic." Regular meetings are held by citizens in the area who have named themselves the Community Concerns Group and they make every resident aware of all the services available to them through the city.

Probably the most rewarding incident of all happened just recently. A man who had moved out because of the blighted area five years ago recently came back and purchased a home in the same subdivision.

"I can't believe this is the same place I left," he said.

"It isn't the same place," Mrs. Palmer replies. "It's totally different now because of the hard work of all the people of the subdivision and we hope to make it even better."

Before and After

Wayne JA Center opens for business

Students from Wayne Memorial, Garden City West, John Glenn and Romulus Senior High schools are ready for business with the opening of the Wayne Junior Achievement (JA) Center this week.

Located at 3139 Wayne Road near Michigan Avenue, the center is completely organized and operated by teen-agers. JA members sell stock, elect officers, select, manufacture and market their company's product and learn the principles of salesmanship, leadership and business.

Each center in the JA Program is made up of 20 students and is sponsored by a major business concern. Under the guidance of professionals from business and industry, the students get first-hand experience in business.

Students interested in joining the JA Program can call 838-4660. Members meet one evening a week from 7 to 9 p.m.

Week by Week

The Hayti School PTA will meet at 7 p.m. Oct. 18 to hear a discussion by a representative of the Wayne County Department of Health on the Swine Flue. The meeting will be held at the school, located on Beverly Road between Middle Belt and Meriman roads.

The Dunn Road Church of God and Christ will be sponsoring a County Fair from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday at the Sumpter Park No. 1, located at the corner of Sumpter and Wahr roads. The day-long event will feature food, games for the children and a hayride. There is no admission charge for the event.

For high risk patients

Swine Flu preventive available

According to television advertising "the flu season is on us", and health officials are hoping to make it a mild season in a massive push to inoculate Wayne County residents against a new strain of the deadly Swine Flu.

Beginning later this month medical personnel will be manning free clinics to first inoculate high risk patients and then other patients against the Swine flu bug, identified earlier this year during an influenza outbreak at Ft. Dix, N.J.

Free Swine Flu shots will be available for high risk patients at 25 sites throughout Wayne County on Oct. 20 and 23, according to Dr. Perry Stearns, Wayne County Health director.

Persons considered high risks are over 60 years of age or suffering from chronic (continuous) diseases, such as heart disease, chronic bronchopulmonary (respiratory) disease, chronic renal (kidney) failures and diabetes.

The elderly and chronically ill will receive a bivalent vaccine which will protect them against Victorian Flu, as well as Swine flu. Test results in July showed that the inoculations probably will be between 70 and 90 percent effective in preventing flu caused by the Swine virus.

Dr. Stearns said that reactions to the vaccine are minor, although some people may get swelling, redness or tenderness in the arm where the injection is given or run a fever for one or two days.

However, he emphasized that no one will be able to get the flu from the vaccine, saying that the virus used in the vaccine already has been killed.

The health director went on to say that the human body will develop protection against the flu after the shot, but getting the flu because of the shot is not likely. He added that person with who are allergic to eggs should check with their physician before getting the vaccination.

The program will be the largest single immunization program undertaken in the history of Wayne County with an estimated 50 percent of the nearly 1.2 million residents expected to roll up their sleeves and get the inoculation.

More than 1,500 volunteers have been recruited by the Red Cross to work in health department clinics throughout the out-county area.

Some 500,000 Americans died during a breakout of the Swine Flu in 1918-19, with the total reaching 20 million worldwide during the pandemic.

The new form of the virus represents a major change from viruses currently circulating among the human population, according to scientists who identified it. The new strain first appeared at the New Jersey military installation where several hundred recruits were infected and one died during the outbreak.

Scientists are uncertain whether the strain will spread to the general population during the upcoming flu season, but feel that if it does, it could develop into a worldwide epidemic strain, causing extensive illness and death.

Dr. Stearns is urging high risk patients to take advantage of the free swine flu clinics or be immunized by their family physician. Clinic sites locally providing the free inoculations for high risk patients include:

—The Geneva United Presbyterian Church, 5835 Sheldon Road, Canton Township;
—J Building at Wayne County General Hospital, Eloise, located on Merriman Road north of Michigan

Avenue;

—St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 19109 Craig, New Boston;
—Romulus City Hall, 11111 Goddard Road;
—The Family Medical Center, 19130 Sumpter Road, Sumpter Township;

—Berean Baptist Church, 6889 Belleville Road, Van Buren Township;
—Westland Center, Room B, 35000 Warren Road, and —Schoolcraft Community College, Physical Education Building, 18600 Haggerty Road between Six and Seven Mile roads, Livonia.

The clinics will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Oct. 20 and 23. The rest of the county's population, not in the high risk category, can expect to receive the flu shots starting Nov. 8 at 47 designated community site locations.

Factsheet discusses flu shots

The Swine Flu vaccination has been the topic of conversation lately, with many residents wondering what good the inoculations will do and whether or not they should get such a shot.

The Food and Drug Administration has come up with a new factsheet on the vaccination that can help answer some of the questions still lingering about the Swine Flu shot.

"The New Flu", available through the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 57, Pueblo, Colo. 81009, gives residents some answers to their questions.

Tests on the vaccine show that it works in people 25 years and older with a single shot, however, a booster shot may be needed for those persons between the ages of 18 and 24.

Discomforts from the inoculation indicate that only a sore arm should be expected, adding that there are some minor symptoms of fever and tiredness.

The factsheet also recommends that those persons who may be running a fever, should delay getting vaccinated until healthy again. And those persons who have received vaccinations within 14 days of the previous says should consult a physician before taking the vaccine.

Since the shot is being provided by the federal government, it won't cost residents anything. Federal, state and local clinics such as those being set up in Wayne County, will administer the vaccine. However, those persons wishing to be inoculated by their family physician probably will be charged the doctor's regular fee for administering a shot.

Romulus is 'booming'

Business is booming in Romulus. New building construction valued at nearly $3 million has been recorded for the month of September.

"It is one of the highest reports our department has ever given," according to Edward Fall, Romulus building department director.

Some 78 permits were taken out to construct buildings with an estimated total cost of $2,926,021. Industrial plants produced the overwhelming portion of that figure with construction accounting for eight permits and some $2,638,748. Residential building amounted to 40 permits with an estimated value of $164,498. Of that total, only two were one-family homes at a cost of $73,000. Thirty-three other homes had $91,498 worth of additions and alterations.

This year's report for September contrasts sharply with last year's figures for the same period which listed only $148,544 worth of construction and $5,665 received in permit fees. The increase of $2,777,477 in construction last month brought a total of $20,389 in permit fees.

Romulus students set for annual 20-mile walk

Romulus City Hall and Romulus Senior High School will be the start and finish respectively for local students when they put their best feet forward for the benefit of underprivileged children in the community.

Students in grade 7 through 12 will be walking a 20-mile route Saturday, starting at 7:30 a.m. at Romulus City Hall, in order to raise money for a Christmas party for underprivileged children in the Romulus community. In past years, the walkers have helped raise more than $3,000 for the yuletide event.

To take part in the walk-athon, students must have a minimum of $5 in pledges for each mile covered during the walk. The minimum per mile pledge is 10 cents.

The students also must pass all checkpoints along the 20-mile route as well as collect all their pledges and turn them in before Nov. 1.

The walkers will receive pop at Checkpoint No. 2 and a free ticket to the Romulus High School-Toledo DevilBliss High School football game, to be held at 1:30 p.m. that same day.

The route the walkers will follow will take students along Wayne Road to Pennsylvania Road on to Ozga Road, then Grant Road to Wayne Road where walkers will head north to Goddard Road, west on that street to Tobine, then on to Wick Road and back to Wayne Road to the finish at the high school. The course will close to walkers at 1 p.m.

The class with the most money turned in will receive a cash prize for its treasury as part of the annual walk-athon.

Residents and businesses interested in helping with the walkathon by sponsoring students can contact Fred Coleman at Romulus High School or by calling 941-2170. The walk is sponsored by the Romulus Jaycees and Romulus High School Student Council.

Seeks state, taxpayers' help

County faces $15 million cash flow crisis

The chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners has appealed to Gov. William Milliken and major corporate taxpayers to help the county through a cash flow crisis.

"Due to unavoidable increases in criminal justice system costs, plus increases in the costs of goods and services and the failure to collect $9.6 million from two sources as anticipated, the county faces a short-term, but critical cash shortage," said County Board Chairman John Barr.

Barr said the county is expected to run out of cash by mid-October and will need up to $15 million to pay employees and vendors through January when the next fiscal year's tax receipts will start coming in.

If state and corporation help is not forthcoming, the county will have to borrow through the issuance of tax anticipation notes for the first time in memory, Barr said. Interests and related costs could reach $165,000 in that event, he added.

...the county will have to borrow through the issuance of tax anticipation notes for the first time in memory...

Barr has asked Gov. Milliken to help the county secure early reimbursement of $11,381,140 in state funds due to be received by the county in February. The money represents reimbursement for Wayne County's certified inventory loss under the new state single business tax structure.

The county board's fiscal advisor will be following up a telephone call Barr made to the governor late last week with a request to Dr. Gerald Miller, director of state office and management.

In addition, Barr said: "We will be writing to about 10 of our major taxpayers asking that they, in the interest of public service, prepay a portion of their annual county taxes to help us through this critical period." Among those firms to receive that request will be the "Big 3" automakers, Detroit Edison and Great Lakes Steel Corp.

"Any advance relief we receive from the state and from these taxpayers will reduce the amount we have to borrow, thus reducing our interest costs," Barr continued. "In these times, every effort should be made to direct every dollar of government money toward service to the people."

In a report on the situation, the county Board of Auditors said: "Present cash flow problems are directly related to a current year operating deficit projected at $8.2 million..."

The auditors reported the following expenditures as the primary cause of the operating deficit and cash flow problem:

—In accordance with a court-imposed prisoner limit at the Wayne County Jail, $1.7 million for renovation and operation of detention facilities at the Detroit House of Correction plus $1.5 million for the conversion of a vacant building at Wayne County General Hospital to a semi-permanent detention structure.

—A labor arbitrator's restoration of sheriff's programs, totaling $657,000, which were not funded or were reduced in this year's budget.

—$2.3 million to cover salary increases in labor contracts which took effect this fiscal year.

—$242,000 to fund increased levels of court activity to combat rising juvenile crime and other court costs.

In addition, the auditors reported the county has received none of the $5.3 million budgeted reimbursement from the Detroit-Wayne County Mental Health Services Board for patient care at Wayne County Psychiatric Hospital and a clinic for child study. Another $4.3 million is payments due from the City of Detroit under terms of the sale of a county water plant to the city of Detroit have not been received, the auditors reported.

The county needs approval from the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission in order to issue tax anticipation notes. Borrowing through this device would be for a period of not more than three months, beginning Nov. 1, with an annual interest rate of not more than 4 percent.

College to offer career planning

A career planning seminar will be held at the Ypsilanti Center of Washtenaw Community College from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday. Mary E. Young, a counselor at the college, will lead the seminar, designed to provide participants with an opportunity to gather and use practical information which can be helpful in job entry or re-entry.

The primary objective of the seminar will be to provide participants with an opportunity to assess their work values and career interests; become knowledgeable of basic job hunting skills such as writing letters of application, filling out applications, preparing resumes and preparing for an interview; develop an understanding of the qualities which employers seek in prospective employees and become aware of job placement prospects.

The tentative schedule for the seminar includes registration at 9 a.m., followed by a seminar overview at 10 a.m., and sessions in self assessment at 10:15 a.m. and career awareness and job trends at 11:15 a.m. Following a noon lunch break, the seminar will continue with sessions on the knowledge needed to obtain work at 1 p.m. and a seminar summary and evaluation at 3:45 p.m.

The Ypsilanti Center is located at 214 N. Huron. A fee of $2.25 for the seminar will be charged, and senior citizens will be admitted free of charge. Advanced registration is requested.

For further information call the center at 482-2230.

Diamonds are...

Smoking and drugs are meeting topics

A practicing physician and surgeon and a specialist in public health education will be at the campaign headquarters of township supervisor candidate Pat Cullin at 8 o'clock tonight to discuss "Smoking and Health."

Dr. John Moyyad, MD, an Ypsilanti physician, studied in Teheran, London, England and the United States as a Fulbright scholar. Sandra Moyyad has her bachelor's and master's degrees in public health education, along with 5½ years of professional experience and 4 years of teaching public health at both the elementary and secondary levels.

The program will include movies, a discussion, with volunteers of the American Lung Association to be on hand. Materials for the meeting will be supplied by organization's Southeastern Michigan Chapter.

Also slated for the headquarters is a panel discussion on drug abuse at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Two speakers will discuss drug abuse, answer questions and talk about the problems and concerns of members of the audience.

The panel will be made up of Ruth Pearl of the Cunningham Committee Against Drug Abuse and Eric Blumberg of the Detroit General Hospital Drug Treatment Program, and Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

The panelists will present specific facts about the pharmacological and psychological effects of some of the widely abused drugs and some perspectives on why people begin using and abusing drugs. They also discuss how parents and relatives or friends can deal with such a problem.

The Cullin campaign headquarters is located at 574 W. Columbia, Belleville.

Capp Homes invites you to a very different
OPEN HOUSE

Right now, people are moving into homes they once thought they couldn't afford. And this special kind of open house will show you how you can too. Come see one of our custom homes before it's all finished. Examine a unique, money-saving concept called the Finish-It-Yourself House™, first hand.

Finishing a custom-built Capp home yourself enables you to save thousands, compared to the cost of having a general contractor build the same house on your lot. You'll see how a homebuyer can custom design his dream home... and work step-by-step with Capp in making his dream come true.

Because the house you'll see is unfinished and ready for its owner to complete, you'll get a chance to see Capp custom-built quality close up. At this open house, nothing is hidden. And you'll learn how you can finish your home with materials and instructions we provide.

Yes, it will be a different experience — an eye opener, for sure. And you'll probably walk away saying, "This is how I'll make my dream come true."

Please come. You owe it to yourself.

Ford collects mixed 'grades' from special interest groups

Congressman William D. Ford has scored well in the annual compilation of ratings, issued by various special interest groups, according to a release from the Michigan Democrat's Washington office.

Eleven different organizations have given the representative of the State's 15th Congressional District a 100 percent rating for his votes during the second session of the 94th Congress, which adjourned Oct. 1. Four other groups rated Ford 80 percent or higher and several others gave him scores ranging as low as 8 percent by the right-wing Americans for Constitutional Action.

Three groups—all extremely conservative—gave the congressman zero ratings, indicating that he did not agree with their viewpoint on any votes of their selected guidelines. The zero ratings came from the American Conservative Union, American Security

'Their ratings are based on the real bread-and-butter issues.'

Council and Independent Petroleum Association.

The 100 percent scores came from a variety of groups, representing labor, consumers, educators, farmers and senior citizens.

"These ratings offer a reasonably accurate indication of how any member of Congress stands on the issues important to the various groups," Ford said.

"I am particularly pleased to receive perfect scores from so many organizations which represent large groups of people—particularly working people, consumers and farmers and those associated with education and senior citizens," the congressman continued. "Their ratings are based on the real bread-and-butter issues.

"I am not concerned with the groups whose ratings are based on such limited issues as aid to Angola, the B-1 bomber or special tax breaks for big business."

Ford's 100 percent ratings came from the American Association of University Women, American Parents Committee, Communications Workers of America, Consumer Federation of America, National Education Association, National Council of Senior Citizens, National Farmers Union and Retail Clerks International Association.

Other double digit ratings were 95 percent from the United Auto Workers, 92 percent from the Building and Construction Trades, 89 percent from Americans for Democratic Action, 61 percent from League of Conservation Voters, 40 percent from the National Federation of Independent Business, 25 percent from the Association of General Contractors and 13 percent from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Two low ratings also received by Ford were 8 percent from the Americans for Constitutional Action and 9 percent from the National Farm Bureau.

'Flying Evangelist' visits Berean Baptist Church

"The Flying Evangelist", The Rev. Curt J. Wetzel, will be at the Berean Baptist Church for a series of meetings Sunday through Oct. 24th.

The Rev. Wetzel has more than 40 years of flying experience to his credit, the last 25 of which have been a part of his ministry. In 1948 he was named chief instructor of the Missionary Aviation Department at Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C.

Since 1949, The Rev. Wetzel has preached in almost every state in the union, traveling by plane. After serving as interim pastor at the First Baptist Church of Lock Haven, Penna., and then as its director of visitation and evangelism, he reentered the field of evangelism exclusively.

During World War II, The Rev. Wetzel served as a flying instructor for 3½ years at Fort Worth, Tex., and flight tested the first guided missile for the U.S. Navy at Fort Dix, N.J.

Prior to his military service and following it, the minister was a test pilot for Piper Aircraft Corp. and performed as a stunt pilot in air shows throughout the country.

The Rev. Wetzel has used his airplane to promote attendance at services, offering free rides to all who qualify by memorizing specified verses and bringing visitors. "The Flying Evangelist" no longer owns an airplane, but rents one for meetings when desirable.

The meetings at Berean Baptist Church will be at 7 p.m. week nights and 11 a.m. Sundays. The church is located at 6889 Belleville Road, Belleville.

Belleville Kiwanians set for peanut sale

Residents are being reminded to keep a look out for members of the Belleville Kiwanis Club who, armed with a selection of peanuts, will be out this Saturday to raise funds on Kid's Day.

Kiwanians will be on the streets of the city throughout the day selling bags of peanuts to raise funds for youth programs.

The club sponsors the Wolverine Boys State Camp and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Camp, as well as supporting the Van Buren Learning Center Fund for summer camps and co-sponsoring the Punt, Pass and Kick competition along with Atchison Ford.

The Kiwanis Club also sponsors girls to the Girl Scout Camp, contributes to Junior Achievement, as well as helping needy people in the community.

There is no set price for the sacks of peanuts club members will be selling.

LANDY W. BOX
SUPERVISOR
VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP
WHO HAS THE QUALIFICATIONS TO BE SUPERVISOR OF VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP?

... It should be a person who has the following experience:

A broad knowledge in many areas so as to understand the needs of all our people, and also understands our legislative process.

Lived and worked on a farm where long hours and hard work were daily routine.

Worked on an assembly line in a factory, where at times this can become quite tiring and monotonous.

Own and operate your own business, where you have to endure long hours and have the expertise to be successful.

Be in supervision in a large Industrial firm where you must have the respect of the employees and also satisfy the company.

Landy's abilities attracted the attention of a large Banking Institution where he served as a Director, Vice President and Chairman of all new branch locations. Plus worked on many other committees in said Institution.

In addition to all the above mentioned duties and responsibilities, Landy has always found the time to work for our Community including Crippled Children, United Foundation, 4 H Clubs and many other organizations to improve the lives of the less fortunate.

Worked on legislation in Lansing to help the Taxpayer in a continuing fight against bureaucracy in Government on all levels.

Landy W. Box has accomplished all of the above mentioned categories, these tasks were not easy and became a reality only through long hours and hard work.

Landy would like to use these qualifications in a total commitment to lead the government of Van Buren Township with efficiency, compassion and equality for all and special privileges for none.

Would you like to help in this commitment for all our residents? We would like your comments and suggestions. Stop in at 454 Main St., Belleville or call 697-5616 or 697-5617. Landy would like to meet you and discuss the issues facing our Township residents.

Butz done in by hypocrites

For many, it was a day of rejoicing. Earl Butz had succumbed to the "loonies" who demanded his resignation.

Earl Butz is a good man and a decent man. A man who loves his country and all that it represents. Butz devoted more than 30 years of his life to public and academic service — as an assistant secretary in the Eisenhower administration, as a professor and then a dean at one of our most distinguished universities — Purdue. And more recently as the secretary of a department that has helped restore personal freedom and abundance to American farms.

Under President Ford and Secretary Butz, act farm income in the U.S. is more than doubled the level of 1965-1966 — the last four years of the Johnson administration. Exports have tripled, cost to the taxpayer has been reduced by three fourths and 60 million acres formerly held out of production at public expense have been released for production. Farmers have had the yoke of bureaucratic control lifted from them and world add domestic food needs are being filled more adequately than ever before. The use of food and food assistance programs for humanitarian needs is much higher than in the 1960s.

None of these accomplishments are recognized now — because the eastern liberal press determined that it was a good political issue. Only the American people lose — they lose the talents of a great man because some politicians are do-gooders said we should not laugh at ourselves. A terrible price to pay and the hypocrites have made us pay.

President, Panax Corp.

As I see it

Welcome aboard, Jim Bradley

By BOB COCHRANE

Editor of the Enterprise Roman
If you noticed the byline on several of the stories in today's Romulus Roman and Belleville Enterprise you saw the name of Jim Bradley.

Only this Bradley is Reporter Jim Bradley, not Pastor Bradley. That's right, Jim has joined the staff of the Associated Newspapers as a full-time general assignment reporter, feature writer and columnist. And I'm happy to say I'm glad he has come aboard.

Jim primarily will cover the Belleville, Romulus and Van Buren areas, but also will pull an assignment in Wayne, Westland and Canton Township now and then. The latter will be to give Reporter Maureen Rademacher a hand. Maureen, a top-notch reporter in her own right, faces an uphill battle in trying to cover three very busy news-producing communities. Yet, in spite of this, she has done a highly commendable job.

Jim B. replaces Jim Carravallah, who resigned last week to enter business with his father.

Jim B. is not a yearling in this fast-paced, fascinating profession.

He worked in our sports department several years ago and most recently handled spot sports assignments for the Observer-Eccentric Newspapers.

He is a full-time pastor of the Fair Haven Baptist Church, but plans to give up that title as he begins to reassert himself in the writing field.

"I plan to resign as pastor but that doesn't mean I won't still be involved in my church," Jim explained.

"You see, I love writing, and I have prayed that some day I could return to reporting on a full-time basis. My prayers have been answered."

Jim is one of the most versatile newsmen I have ever met. And that makes an editor secure in the knowledge that whatever assignment you give him he'll give you his best shot on just about any subject.

I also have noticed something else about Jim. His personality is always consistent: Pleasant.

He lives in Garden City and hence knows Western Wayne County intimately, which should be a tremendous advantage in moving from assignment to assignment.

I welcome Jim Bradley to our editorial staff and hope that his association will be rewarding. I know it will be interesting.

Press must begin a self-scrutiny

As we observe National Newspaper Week it gives us an opportunity to reflect on where the print media has been and where it is going. Pause.

That, dear readers, was a pause for caution. We all know newspapers serve as the watchdogs for the American people and that is as it should be. But because of what has been happening lately newspapers should start applying some self-scrutiny and restraint.

Their basic function, that of informing and exposing, most certainly must never be permitted to be undermined, but by the same token they must not abuse their power.

However, we are sorry to say, this is what is happening today in several ways.

Newspaper people's most severest critics are fellow newspaper people and many of them say that the print and electronic media are making the most of the power they have accumulated. Take for example the 1976 presidential election. Some highly placed journalists say the press is not covering the election; it is calling the shots.

When power is no longer respected but feared, then the press becomes a symbol of tyranny.

Starting with Watergate, the press has taken a strong adversary position, so much in fact that it may drive the good people away from politics.

The day will come, if indeed it isn't already here, when the mention of the word "politician" will elicit nothing but derisive giggles, snickers and other demeaning utterances.

And why not? The print and electronic media has dwelled too long and too intensely on the escapades of a Wilbur Mills and a Wayne Hays, the vulgarity of an Earl Butz and the gaffe and the bumbling of President Ford, so that the real issues of the day—how the candidates stand on foreign policy, defense, the economy—have been consigned to the back burner.

This may be the first election in the history of the United States that the voter will go to the booth and make his and her choice of the presidential candidate who makes the least amount of goofs debating or making speeches or watering his lawn.

And we have the Eastern press for the most part to thank for that, we are sad to report, because they insist on producing endless headlines on man's human failings.

The press soon must make an accounting and decide where it is headed. It already is the freest of its kind in the world and should, heaven help us, remain that way, but freedom has never been a license for the press to wield its enormous power as a weapon of fear.

Good old fashioned objectivity and good, hard-nosed reporting of the REAL issues are still the name of the game.

As they see it

Reader says Detroit's 'immorality' parallels that of Sodom, Gomorrah

To the editor:

So what is so very great about Detroit?

Under its former and immediate past mayor — an incompetent and inept political hack if there was ever one in this area — he demoralized and played politics with the police department and then its fire department and ran up one of the highest reported deficits in the city's history and then because of his consummate avarice and greed for higher office, he "conned the electorate" into promoting him into the office of a Wayne County judge and he now has the unmitigated arrogance and egotism and gall to endeavor to again try to "con the electorate" into promoting him into the office of a State Supreme court justice — a position that he is totally unqualified and unsuited for — and to "play politics" in trying to get that position. And it must not be forgotten that under his administration as mayor, he commenced the slide of Detroit "down the rat-hole" towards the position that it now holds.

And now under his almost hand-picked successor, who is another incompetent and inept political hack, he, too, has further demoralized and played politics with the police and fire department and under his administration the city of Detroit is "going to Hell in the hand-basket," when one considers all that one can read in the daily newspapers of such as the following...

That there has been under this mayor, an increase of corruption, of crime, of cronyism, of fraud, of graft, of nepotism, of pornography rampant, of reverse racism, of sensationalism about alleged successful actions by the city administration, plus God alone knows what else has been going on that the people do not know about yet, and let us not forget that there has been an increase in drug-dealing and of narcotics pushing and of prostitution and of illegal gaming and how much more that the people know not of?

Truly, it can be said that there are remarkable parallels between the Biblical descriptions of the immorality and worse that was going on in Sodom and Gomorrah and of its ultimate total destruction by the vengeful action of God and the present sad state of the lack of morality in the city of Detroit — a city in which there are countless numbers of unborn children who are bloodily butchered by the merchants of death, who passing as doctors commit such abortions because of their consummate avaricious greed for the Almighty Dollar. And let us not forget those sick-minded and immoral women's libbers who are not only the architects but also the aides and accessories to the creation of this present state of God-less and God-defying lack of morality within the Greater Detroit area and state-wide and nation-wide.

Surely, the time will come, when divine judgment, divine justice, divine providence, and divine will will levy upon the city of Detroit and this state and this nation a most fearsome punishment and retribution for its many transgressions, which are so similar to those in Sodom and Gomorrah and moreover even in the lands occupied by the followers of Moses, who after they were led out of Egypt and the land of the Pharaohs by Moses, then shortly thereafter reverted to their previous ways and commenced committing evils again.

And so May God have mercy upon the city of Detroit and this state and this nation and all of the people therein, for surely the day will come (unless mankind repents and becomes contrite and repentant), when mankind will again be punished!

As for ourselves (my daughter and I) we can but wish that we had the means (i.e., a truck with a towing apparatus) plus the necessary assets or funds of monies or resources, so that we could immediately leave this "hell-hole of perfidious iniquity."

SET AN EXAMPLE

You never read about our kids and the good things they have done.
The headlines just get bigger of things they've done that's wrong.

You gossip about our boys' long hair and their heavy bearded face, and the crashing clothes they wear,
and say none of 'em have good taste.

Now I've got something I will say,
so hear me loud and clear.
Stop talking about our kids today
'cause you look pretty weird.

You are a man of sixty or more and your long hair's down your neck.
Just to look at you does bore us women 'cause you're a wreck.

You act just like a playboy, for all the women you have eyes.
You think that you're a woman's toy but there's evil in your lies.

Why don't you act a man your age
so our kids can look up to you.
So cut your hair and get a shave
Then all our kids would, too.

I wish that you would take a walk in front of a real big mirror.
Then you'd find no room to talk about our kids you smear.

SAY A PRAYER TODAY

Good morning, Lord, I always say and on my knees I got.
Now's the time that I will pray and give our Lord some thought.

I said a special prayer for you and asked God to give you care, and never let your days be blue,
And go with you everywhere.

The sun is shining high above and I feel so good inside.
I know our God will give you love with arms open so wide.

God can make things go so right and make your day a pleasure.
Do not keep your self up tight
as our Lord's ways you will treasure.

Oh, won't you take sometime today and get down on your knees, and for your friends and neighbors pray, and our heavenly father, please.

OCTOBER DAYS

The weather now is growing cold.
Leaves are turning red and gold.
Corn shocks standing all in a row, resembling wigwags of long ago.

Golden Pumpkins up on the vine, ready for pies that taste so fine.
Jack-o-lanterns glowing every where,
a growing excitement in the air.

Kids dress in costumes gay and bright.
They'll have fun on Halloween night.
But older folks don't see it that way.
For October is both sad and gay.

It's the ending of a sweet summer song.
The days grow short and the nights long.
The older folks will they all know soon will be shivering in ice and snow.

And that's the reason October is sad.
But it also makes the people glad.
For when Jack Frost paints leaves red and gold.
The beauty is enjoyed by young and old.

Mama loves her little boy so.
She wouldn't part with him you know.
Holds him gently upon her knee and tells him stories lovingly.

Gives him food and clothes to wear.
Watches him with tender care.
Tucks him cozy in bed each night.
Kisses him then turns out the light.

I WISH AGAIN I WERE IN MICHIGAN

I have grown as lonely as can be for I've been so long across the sea.
Oh, I can't help but to wish again
that I were back in Michigan.

Before the roses bloom in June
I will be home real soon.
I've seen so many different faces.
Been to so many different places.

Since I have been so far away
I just simply now must say
I've tried to like them all I could but didn't like any half as good.

As my very own beloved state
I now know is, oh, so great.
I have been north, south, east and west,
but Michigan's the place I like best

Oh, I can't help but wish again
that I were back in Michigan.
By the time the roses are in bloom
I'll be back home in my own room.

Symbols of national decay unmistakable

By PATRICK J. BUCHANAN
New York Times News Service

'Somewhere up ahead of us is Great Britain, which took this same road a few short decades ago.'

WASHINGTON — Outside Yankee Stadium the night of the All-Norton fight, off-duty cops demonstrated, blocked traffic, and egged on roving gangs of youths to crash the gates, and shake down New Yorkers who had come to watch the championship fight.

Facing pay freezes and layoffs, New York's finest had taken a page out of the collected sermons of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. If you feel your cause is just, use civil disobedience to rectify the injustice. Everywhere the chickens hatched in the 60s are coming home to roost.

In that tumultuous decade it was anti-war students and civil rights militants who engaged in illegal demonstrations. Now, it is firemen, cops, sanitation workers, teachers and doctors who walk off the jobs in illegal strikes.

The front page reports are disquieting.

Highly paid doctors and government officials, we learn, have been bilking the medicare program for tens of millions of dollars, maybe billions. Abuses in welfare, where free-loaders have been living high off the hog at the expense of the working poor, are legendary. A study of one Wisconsin county finds that two-thirds of those drawing food stamp benefits were college students, having their chow subsidized by working folks who will never earn $14,000 a year.

A rising percentage of the "finest young generation we have ever produced" defaults on student loans made possible by the sacrifices of older Americans who never had a chance to go to college.

Everyone, it appears, is getting while the getting is good.

Some months back, CBS correspondent Dan Rather flew to Florida to follow up on a reported scandal in unemployment compensation. He found one case after another of Northerners who had come south to soak up the sun on unemployment checks, while rejecting jobs open and offered or lying outright about jobs held. How many were involved? Perhaps 80 percent, reckoned one official, were ripping off taxpayers for up to 65 weeks of free unemployment benefits.

In 1951 a cheating scandal at West Point, involving some 90 cadets, rocked the nation. In the Bicentennial, we read that cheating at the Point may be as prevalent as it is at every other university. The editorial pages of the nation's press blossom with arguments for abandoning the honor code as discriminatory and obsolete.

Jimmy Carter campaigns on the slogan, "I owe nothing to the special interests." Another little white whopper.

He owes George Meany his signature on a bill repealing right-to-work laws in 20 states. He owes Ralph Nader a consumer protection agency which will get scores of Naderites off Ralph's back and on to the federal payroll. He owes the National Education Association billions for the industry, in exchange for the NEA endorsement and the precinct work of the teacher's union.

Are the Republicans more moral, more principled? As Congress, Deo gratia, was adjourning, conservative Republicans were rolling over on one spending bill after another, yet they know there is no money in the Treasury to pay for the goodies they voted. They know Mr. Simon must go into the money markets and borrow, and thus soak up capital that might otherwise be available to the job-producing private sector. They know the deficits to which they are contributing mean devaluation of the U.S. dollar in a way, as Lord Keynes said, "not one man in a million" is able to detect.

The pace is leisurely, but the direction is unmistakable.

Somewhere up ahead of us is Great Britain, which took this same road a few short decades ago.

We Americans cease to behave as a national community united in common purpose. And, increasingly, we begin to behave as a collection of mobs, each of which is out to get a leg up on the other to rip off the system, to advance its relative position, even if it means bending the rules or breaking the law.

Ours is a rich and powerful country. But we are living off the inherited capital accumulated by past generations. It can all continue for a while. But one day it must end; and then there must come a national accounting.

Is the UAW strike a political weapon?

WASHINGTON — "We are aware," said United Auto Workers President Leonard Woodcock, "of the impact a long strike might have on our members, the communities in which they live and the nation as a whole."

Left unsaid was the political impact of the UAW strike of the Ford Motor Company in 22 states involving 170,000 workers. Has Woodcock pulled his UAW workers out as a political weapon to aid the campaign of Jimmy Carter? This question needs much more national news media attention than it has gotten.

The one issue of the Carter campaign is the economy and jobs. At the moment it has not been an issue that has real solid political appeal because the economy is experiencing a slow but gradual recovery. The UAW strike could change the Ford-directed economic recovery substantially.

The political alliance between Leonard Woodcock of the UAW and the Carter campaign is extensive and dates back to the first crucial Democratic presidential caucuses and primaries in states like Iowa and Florida.

The UAW poured money and manpower into the Carter campaign, which would have been derailed very early without Woodcock's help. In fact, Carter was so in hock to the UAW that his staffers let leak to the labor correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor in late June that Woodcock was "high on the list" for consideration as future Secretary of Labor or Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare!

"There are things," Woodcock said after a meeting with Carter a few days before the June 8 primaries, "that I have discussed with Governor Carter and find him sympathetic. Mr. Carter has realistic answers to the economic problems this nation faces."

The degree of this "sympathy" or outright UAW control of the Carter campaign manifested itself at the National Democratic Convention. UAW President Woodcock had spearheaded a group called "The Labor Coalition" that was specifically formed to help Carter during the primaries. At the convention the Coalition virtually dictated the adoption of the Carter platform and was instrumental in blocking any minority reports the Coalition did not favor. Significantly, the only minority report adopted was the repeal of the Hatch Act that forbids federal unionized employees from engaging in partisan political activities. Furthermore, it was "The Labor Coalition" that dictated the choice of Senator Walter Mondale as Carter's running mate.

Thus the Carter alliance with the UAW president and his commanding the current strike of the Ford Motor Co. carries heavy political implications and raises the serious issue of the strike as a political dirty trick against the President's campaign.

In the past, Carter and his associates have demonstrated they are not above such tactics. In 1970, for example, Carter's campaign for governor of Georgia employed a unit called "the stink tank" that was specifically charged with mounting political dirty tricks. One such tactic involved the Carter campaign secretly funding the media campaign of a third candidate in the race so as to drain off votes from Carter's opponent, Carl Sanders, whom he smeared as an "ultra liberal" and pro-black.

Two friendly biographers of Carter, Bob Slosser and Howard Norton, report that after Carter won in 1970 he told friends that he "felt bad" about the things he had to do and say to get elected and he prayed for forgiveness.

"It was unquestionably a campaign of expediency," the authors wrote, "And it worked. Carter confessed it all later — to friends and the Lord."

During the final TV debate between Ford and Carter, Ford is within his right to ask Carter about his close political alliance with the United Auto Workers boss and his crucial help in the campaign. Carter also needs to be asked how he can campaign on creating more jobs and yet remain silent when a union leader, with whom he has a close political working relationship, throws 170,000 workers out of employment — not over wages, but over more time off than most American workers now enjoy!

The UAW-Carter connection and Leonard Woodcock pulling his workers out raises serious doubts about Carter's claim that he is unbossed and not the creature of any powerful special interest group. The fact that Carter supports every single issue demanded by Labor, from repeal of right-to-work laws to national economic planning, makes a mockery of his repeated claims to political independence. His UAW connection makes his statement in his acceptance speech in New York City ring hollow.

"Too often," he piously told the convention, "unholy self-perpetuating alliances have been formed between money and politics, and the average citizen has been held at arm's length."

Couple return from Central Europe tour

By Mrs. Joseph Spring
699-4021

Mr. and Mrs. Russel Price of Liberty Street returned early Oct. 4 from a Moslem Shrine tour of Central Europe. Leaving Metro Airport on Sept. 19 by charter jet to London they went on to Vienna where they spent three days before traveling by train through the beautiful Bavarian countryside to Munich. There they attended the Oktoberfest, during the heart of the biggest event on the continent of Europe.

Four days were spent on trips in and around Munich and its picture-book scenery. The new beautiful Munich Sheraton Hotel was their headquarters while in Bavaria.

From Munich they traveled by train over and through the Alps to the city of Venice on the Adriatic Sea. The Excelsior Palace Hotel was used as a base for their excursions to various buildings and for trips on the canals by gondolas and other boats.

After three days in Venice a special train took them back over the Alps through one of the longest tunnels in Europe to the Beau Rivage Hotel in Lausanne, Switzerland, on Lake Geneva. They were there for three days after which the 254 members of the group boarded buses to go to Geneva for the flight back to the States, again by way of London and northern Canada.

in Owosso following surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maki and family of Quirk Road attended funeral services for a brother-in-law, Robert Rundblom, at Des Plaines, Ill. on Oct. 3. Mr. Rundblom, aged 54 years, passed away suddenly on Sept. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Oakley, one-time Belleville residents now of Fairfield Glade, Tenn., were overnight guests Wednesday of Elda Bohl of Robson Road.

Dr. and Mrs. James Jacobs of Cincinnati, Ohio were weekend guests of Mrs. Henry Sager of West Columbia Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parker of E. Huron River Drive spent several days this past week in and about Glennie.

Leon Boldt of Roland Street attended a meeting of the National Eagle Triplex Association held at Atlanta, Ga. on Oct. 2.

Former Belleville Road residents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wood of Manchester, Tenn., have been visiting relatives and friends in this area for the past week.

Mrs. Douglas Kobish and children, Christopher and Teresa of Addison, spent several days this past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deering of W. Columbia Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKelvey and son, Ron, of Bemis Road were dinner guests last Sunday of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones of Allen Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mericle of Denton Road attended the 21st biannual Kaiser Frazer Owners Club International Seaway Regional meet at Bellefontaine, Ohio, the weekend of October 2-3. On Saturday they held an open house at holiday Inn for members who arrived early from Michigan, Ohio, Canada, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

On Sunday an old car show of K.F.'s was held in the Elk's Lodge parking lot followed by a buffet luncheon and the rewarding of trophies. Mrs. Mericle is Lady Manager of the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Herkimer and grandchildren enjoyed camping last weekend at Harrow, Ont. with the Motor City Ramblers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkendoll arrived home recently from a 5-day vacation in Mexico City, Taxco and Acapulco. They enjoyed a boat trip to Razueta Island and a day-long tour of Old Mexico and Taluca where they went shopping.

Third daughter born to Leweks

Monica and Melissa Lewek, who are seven and five years of age, respectively, are happy to announce the arrival of a new baby sister on Sept. 21. The newest member of the family (and their future playmate) is Lori Ann who made her debut at Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

The 8-lb. 9-oz. infant, who measured 21½ inches, is the daughter of Joseph and Caroline Lewek of 9235 Chamberlain, Romulus.

The girls' grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Nick L. Fischer of Belleville and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewek Sr. of Detroit.

Salute to business women

National Business Women's Week will begin Oct. 17 and continue through Oct. 23. In honor of the special event, Belleville Mayor Justin Emerson signed an official proclamation which designated that time as a special observance for business and professional women. With him as he signed the document were Rosalie K. O'Hara, chairman of the week-long activities, and Dorothy Westergard, committee member. Both are members of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW).

It's Business Women's Week both nationally and locally

Two representatives of the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club (BPW) visited the office of Belleville Mayor Justin Emerson last week to acquire his signature on a proclamation which announces Oct. 17 to 23 as National Business Women's Week.

Bertha Rettig, BPW vice-president, and Rosalie K. O'Hara, chairman of National Business and Professional Women's Week, witnessed the following proclamation: I, Justin Emerson, proclaim the week of Oct. 17 through 23 as National Business Women's Week; the objectives of this club shall be: to elevate the standard of women in business and the professions to promote the interests of business and professional women; to bring about the spirit of cooperation among business and professional women of the United States; to extend opportunities to business and professional women through education along the lines of industrial, scientific and vocational activities.

In observance of National Business and Professional Women's Week the Belleville BPW group plans to attend 11 a.m. services at Faith United Methodist Church in Denton on Oct. 17 and then continue on to Howard Johnson's Restaurant for brunch at 12:30 p.m.

Husbands of members are invited and encouraged to accompany their wives.

Charter members honored at October ADK meeting

The October meeting of the Gamma Gamma Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa (ADK), international honorary sorority for women educators, was held at the home of Mrs. Janice Fry of Lakeview Court, Belleville.

A pledge ceremony was conducted for the four new members followed by a Founder's Day program to celebrate ADK's 29th birthday. Charter members of the sorority presented with daisies were Mrs. Marian Batzer, Mrs.

Bobbie Kettler, Mrs. Mona Salisbury, Mrs. Wanda Shirley, Mrs. Ann Smith, Mrs. Frances Stapleton and Mrs. Marjorie Vaniadis. The story and background of the Gamma Gamma Chapter was given by Mrs. Batzer.

Sorority observes ADK Week

Alpha Delta Kappa, an international honorary sorority for women educators, is in the process of marking ADK Week which began Oct. 10 and will continue through Oct. 16.

The Gamma Gamma Chapter of Belleville, which was organized in 1970 with 16 charter members, and now lists 22 members, is among the 67 Michigan chapters included in the observance.

Alpha Delta Kappa was incorporated as a national sorority in 1947 and gained international status in 1955. At present there are chapters in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Canada, England, Jamaica and Argentina.

The philosophy of Alpha Delta Kappa is: to develop strong professional recognition for women teachers; to insure that achievements shall be along educational and altruistic lines; to develop strong fraternal fellowships and to promote the highest standards of education.

All ADK chapters do much along altruistic lines. Belleville's Gamma Gamma Chapter has engaged in many such projects since its organization. The group's activities have included entertaining the teen residents of Ypsilanti State Hospital at Christmas parties for three successive years and holding an "unbirthday" party to celebrate all their birthdays. They also made and distributed individual laundry bags for the same group and collected and sent educational books, games and toys to a small impoverished public school in Northern Michigan.

The local chapter purchased two movies and eight Mike Whorf tapes and presented them to the Van Buren Instructional Material Center; sent Christmas gifts (magazine subscriptions) to the Van Buren homebound students; conducted a Bicentennial art contest in the Van Buren Schools and hosted Van Buren teacher retirees at a retirement tea. Individual members also tutored students in the name of ADK.

Mayor's proclamation

Belleville Mayor Justin Emerson affixes his signature to an official proclamation stating that the week of Oct. 10 to 16 is designated as Alpha Delta Kappa Week. ADK is an international honorary sorority for women educators. Two members of the Gamma Gamma Chapter of Belleville, Phyllis Gray, president, (center) and Wanda Shirley, chairman of ADK Week, received the document.

Smith-Truesdell exchange vows at Methodist Church

Vases of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath and lighted tapers adorned the altar of the First United Methodist Church of Wayne as Edrhe Ann Truesdell of Wayne and Harold W. Smith of Belleville exchanged wedding vows and rings.

The Rev. Charles Jacobs presided at the summer ceremony at 4 p.m. before some 50 close friends and relatives. Music for the afternoon rite was supplied by organist Mary Orwin and soloist Gladwin Miller. The bride, whose parents are deceased, had as surrogate parents for the occasion her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lynne Hamilton of Belleville.

Escorted up the aisle by Mr. Hamilton, the bride appeared in a toe-touching gown of white qiana fashioned with a softly gathered skirt which drifted into a chapel sweep. The little fitted bodice featured long, fitted sleeves and an insert of illusion and lace which formed an oval medallion below the high neckline.

Her lace-banded veil, cut in mid-back length, was secured by a lace-covered Camelot cap. She carried a small arrangement of yellow and white daisies and baby's breath atop a white Bible.

The bride asked her sister, Mrs. Alice Arlen of Plymouth, to be matron of honor and her niece, Lisa A. Hamilton, to be junior bridesmaid.

Mrs. Arlen wore a yellow garden hat with her yellow gown which was designed with short cape sleeves and a square neckline. Lisa donned a long, short-sleeved polka dot frock and had a yellow ribbon tied in her hair.

The bridegroom chose his friend Allan Richardson of Livonia, to serve as best man. The bride's nephews, Scott Arlen of Plymouth and David Hamilton of Belleville, were ushers.

For her sister's wedding Mrs. Hamilton chose to wear a long-sleeved yellow qiana gown while Mrs. Smith, the bridegroom's mother, donned a pale green gown with a companion jacket. Both were presented with corsages to harmonize with their dresses.

Following the ceremony the bridal party and 50 guests sat down to dinner in the Gold Room of the church. Some three weeks later, 225 friends and relatives attended an afternoon reception for the couple at Faith United Methodist Church in Denton.

The newlyweds spent a 4-day honeymoon at Missaukee Lake near Lake City and are now at home at the bride's residence at 3384 Williams St., Wayne.

The new Mrs. Smith is a media specialist at Adams Junior High School in Westland. A graduate of Wayne High School and Eastern Michigan University, she earned her master's degree at the University of Michigan. Her husband is employed as an engineer for the Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at their home in Denton.

Debate aid sought

The League of Women Voters is seeking individual contributions to help offset the cost of the presidential debates.

Any contribution is tax-deductible and has no dollar limitation.

The final televised debate is Oct. 22. All major networks are covering the series, but the cost of funding the expenses for the series must be borne by the League of Women Voters Education Fund.

The estimated cost of site rental, press facilities, project staff, fund raising, legal opinions, travel and other items will be about $150,000.

A league spokesperson for the Northville, Plymouth, Canton, Novi chapter said that the organization is very proud to sponsor the event, the first presidential debates in 16 years, and calls it "another example of the League's unchallenged reputation for nonpartisan voter education."

Contributions can be sent to: LWVEF-Debates, 1730 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20036.

Pat Dillon rates as semifinalist in National Merit Scholarship test

Approximately 15,000 students have been named semifinalists in the 1977 National Merit Scholarship Program. These academically talented students will have an opportunity to continue in the competition for about 3,850 Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring. Patricia Ann Dillon of Belleville High School, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dillon of 47134 Lauren Court, Belleville was named semifinalist.

To advance to finalist standing, semifinalists must meet requirements that include being fully endorsed and recommended for scholarship consideration by their secondary school principals, presenting school records that substantiate high academic standing, and confirming their high qualifying test scores with equivalent scores on a second examination. Over 90 percent of the semifinalists are expected to qualify as finalists and to receive Certificates of Merit next February. All winners of Merit Scholarships will be chosen from the exceptionally able group of Finalists.

Over 1 million students from more than 17,000 high schools entered the 1977 Merit Program by taking the 1975 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT). Semifinalists are the highest-scoring students in each state; the number named in a state is proportional to that state's percentage of the nation's total graduating senior class. The semifinalists, most of whom will complete high school and enter college in 1977, represent the top half of one percent of the nation's most academically talented young people.

Semifinalists who attain finalist status will compete for at least 1,000 National Merit $1,000 Scholarships. Each finalist will compete with all other finalists in a particular state for these scholarships that are allocated on a state representational basis (the procedure used to name semifinalists). The National Merit $1000 Scholarship are one-time, nonrenewable awards supported by grants to NMSC from business and industrial sponsors. A selection committee of professionals in college admissions and counseling in convened annually to select the 1,000 winners.

Finalists who meet the qualifications established by grantors will also be considered for about 2,850 four-year Merit Scholarships to be offered in 1977. About 1,350 of these awards will be supported by grants to the Merit Program from corporations, foundations, unions and professional associations; some 1,500 four-year Merit Scholarship will be sponsored by U.S. colleges and universities. Depending upon the minimum and maximum values established by the grantor, the winner of a renewable Merit Scholarship may receive up to $1,500 (or more) during each of the four college undergraduate years.

The 1977 competition is the twenty-second conducted by NMSC. In the twenty-one annual Merit Programs completed between 1956 and 1976, over 45,800 students have won Merit Scholarship valued at more than $124 million.

NMSC will release the names of Merit Scholarship winners in 1977 in three public announcements through the news media; winners of corporate-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarship will be announced on April 6; winners of one-time National Merit $100 Scholarships will be named on April 20; and the announcement of college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarship winners will be made on April 27.

EMOTIONAL STAGES FOR THE SURVIVORS

In her widely-read books on the subject of death-and-dying, noted psychiatrist Dr. Elisabeth Kubler-Ross discusses a great many perplexing aspects of coping with terminal illness...from the point of view of the patient, the medical professionals and the families involved.

Her studies indicate that the stages of denial, anger, bargaining, depression, and acceptance of death are common to most terminally ill patients.

Some of these stages are common, too, with the survivors of the deceased. They, too, may experience a denial of the death of a loved one. They may also experience anger, depression and, finally, acceptance...and then begin rebuilding the pieces of family life without the deceased.

This adjustment period is of variable duration, depending on the person's psychological make-up. The widow (or widower) children, and relatives all interact and find strength in sharing each other's strong points, thus making the adjustment less difficult and prolonged.

For more information on how to cope with the stages to which we refer, stop by for suggesting reading material. This is one of a series of brief articles we hope will be helpful. You may ask questions privately or publicly through this newspaper.

From Russia — with love

It had been 64 years since 81-year-old Mrs. Bernice Tupacz of Belleville and her brother, Stanley Zawadzka of Russia, had seen each other. The 74-year-old Zawadzka is here on a 45-day visa to visit relatives in the vicinity, including Felix and Lottie Modzelewski of Belleville and Ed and Jean Tupacz of New Boston, who were on hand at Detroit Metro Airport when his plane arrived from the Soviet Union on Sept. 30. Unbeknownst to the foreign visitor, he is probably the best medicine the doctor could order for the elder Mrs. Tupacz since she is recovering from recent surgery which involved the amputation of a leg. Zawadzka, who hails from the city of Mjasto Halicz which is near Moscow, is a retired salesman.

Send us your bridal information

Want to share that "special day" with those who are unable to be present in person for your wedding ceremony? We'll write the details of your wedding in story form for you — and at no charge — if you'll simply follow a few guidelines.

The Belleville Enterprise and The Romulus Roman offer bridal questionnaires for you to fill out as well as engagement forms for announcing the "start of it all." These forms include all the pertinent questions involved with your marriage or betrothal.

Forms may be picked up at our office, 116 Fourth St., Belleville (we're in the old Township Hall, side entrance) anytime during the week between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

We will also mail forms if a telephone request is made. Call Lee Smith, Suburban Living Editor, at 697-9191.

Meat — major production

Steaks, chops, roasts, ground meat and all the other cuts obtained from livestock production don't just appear at the retailer's counter or on the restaurant table.

A production cycle ranging from months to years is behind every cut of meat. During this cycle, expenditures are made for: labor, capital investment, taxes, depreciation, energy, transportation, marketing, processing, packaging and final distribution.

These expenses are in addition to the basic costs for buying, breeding, feeding and caring for the animals.

Road Patrol office to add second story

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners has authorized the expansion of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Headquarters, an expansion which two county commissioners predict will improve law enforcement.

The board Oct. 7 approved an expenditure of up to $177,000 for construction of a second-story addition over the garage of the Road Patrol Building, located on Henry Ruff Road in Westland.

Commissioners Tom Presnell (D-Westland) and Edgar L. Harris (D-Taylor) said the addition will improve the efficiency of the Patrol and Investigation Division, the law enforcement arm of the Sheriff's Department. Both men serve on the board's Public Works Committee which recommended the expansion.

"This new area will meet the minimum space requirements for the Metro Narcotics Bureau, which has been increased from eight to 30 officers, and for the Criminal Intelligence and Youth Bureaus," Presnell said, adding: "It also will alleviate the overcrowding of the Traffic Bureau, Marine Division and the Women's Division."

Harris said: "Our study of the matter confirmed, we feel, the report of the division's chief, Senior Insp. Richard Novak, that the expansion will improve the atmosphere for interrogations and other contacts, will increase security and safety and will improve operational efficiency and morale."

Noting that the county faces a financial squeeze at present, Presnell pointed out that the cost of the construction will be met from capital improvement funds already set aside in the budget.

The 89-by-42 foot addition will provide 3,738 square feet of floor space.

The Board of Commissioners also recently approved construction of a new 6,200-square foot storage building for the Patrol and Investigation Division at a cost of $75,000. It will house vehicles, Marine Division boats and equipment.

Career program slated

How many people would pass up a chance to look into the future? If given the chance, not too many, and at Romulus Senior High School that chance is available to the area's young adults.

Through many hours of painstaking research and scientific investigation, the Vocational Education Department of Romulus High School has created the CAREER-ASCOPE.

CAREER-ASCOPE, a unique invention, will allow individuals to look several years into the future in order to view the many careers available to them upon graduation. This "amazing invention" will allow each individual a chance to focus on his or her personal CAREER-ASCOPE on any area of particular interest.

The CAREER-ASCOPE will make its debut February 15, 1977, during Romulus High School's first annual CAREER DAY. The CAREER-ASCOPE will bring the high school speakers who specialize in such areas as communication, business, the military, the foods areas, higher education and many, many more.

If you would like to share your career with others, please contact Cathy Ward at 941-4420.

After 'summer vacation'

Indoor plants hide outdoor insects

If you brought your houseplants indoors after a summer vacation outside without checking and treating them for insect problems, there may be a population explosion occurring in your home right now.

Their warm temperatures and the absence of natural predators permit a few hitchhiking insects to build up into huge populations very quickly. Frequent, regular inspection of houseplants to spot an insect buildup and treatment before the population gets out of hand is advised.

Foliage insects likely to hitchhike indoors on houseplants include aphids, spider mites, white flies, thrips and scale insects. Although they look quite different, all feed by sucking plant juices from the foliage.

Aphids are soft-bodied insects from one-sixteenth to one-eighth inch long. They usually are green, but may be brown, black, pink or yellow, and they may not have wings. They tend to accumulate on the new, succulent growth — on recently opened leaves, flowers buds and flower stems. They also tend to be selective about what they feed on. They may pass up several plants to congregate on one that particularly "suits their fancy".

A Clue that aphids are present is the presents of their white skins. If your plant seems to have dandruff on its lower leaves or around the pot on the shelf or table, suspect aphids.

If the dandruff flies away when you shake the plant, you probably have white flies. These tiny winged insects are about one-sixteenth inch long. Their wings are snow white. In flight they look like tiny bits of white ash swirling in the air. Both the adults and immature forms feed on the undersides of the plant leaves.

Like aphids, white flies secrete a sticky substance called honeydew. If this builds up on plants, the leaves may become discolored with black sooty mold.

Thrips are tiny, barely visible insects that feed on the undersides of the leaves. Look for irregular or streaked silver areas speckled with tiny black dots. These are the insects' droppings.

Scale insects may get onto houseplants set near ornamental shrubs with scale problems. Adult scale insects have a hard, shell-like covering. Most are gray or brown, one-sixteenth to one-eighth inch long and round to oval in shape.

Spider mites are tiny, oval, 8-legged pests that belong to the spider family. They are found mostly on the undersides of leaves. If they are very numerous, the fine silky webbing in which they live becomes readily visible.

Speckled yellow leaves, wilting poor growth and stunting of the plant are the signs of feeding injury by sucking insects. A solution of Malathion in water used as a plant dip or spray can be used to control foliage insects. For mites use a miticide like Kelthane.

Insects also may infest the soil of your vacationing houseplants. Springtails, snowbugs, millipedes, ants and other familiar insects may be present, specifically if the plant pots were buried up to the rims in the garden soil.

Springtails are about one-third inch long and range in color from white to black and yellow. They occur on moist soil and can be recognized by their habit of jumping or springing into the air. They can build up large populations in a very short period of time.

Like many other soil insects, springtails feed on fungi, decayed vegetation and algae, but they also may feed on living plants. Drying out humid or damp areas and increasing air circulation are the best cures for the springtail problem. Insecticides provide only temporary relief. For other soil insects, a soil drench of Lindane is recommended.

To avoid carrying insect pests into your home, inspect plants carefully. Look for the various insects as well as evidence that they have been there—honeydew, cast skins, webs and so on. Check the bottoms of the pots for sowbugs, pillbugs, millipedes, slugs and other pests that might be hiding there.

CITY OF ROMULUS ORDINANCE

CHAPTER II ARTICLE 4.1

An Ordinance to amend Section 8.1 of Chapter 2, Article 4 of the City of Romulus Code of Ordinances.

WHEREAS: The City Council of the City of Romulus is anxious to pursue the mandates set forth in Chapter 2 Article 4 Noxious Weed Ordinance; and WHEREAS Same may best be effected by the immediate and direct control of the officers charged with the daily maintenance and enforcement of the City Ordinances in general; and WHEREAS: Section 8.1 requires that a different department administer the Noxious Weed Ordinance:

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY OF ROMULUS ORDAINS:

SECTION I. Short Title
Amended Noxious Weed Ordinance.

SECTION II. Noxious Weed Commissioner

Section 8.1 is hereby repealed and the following adopted in its place:

(8.1) The Noxious Weeds Commissioner required by Act 359 of the Public Acts of 1941 as amended, designated by this ordinance to enforce the provisions of this act shall hold office for two (2) years or until his successor is appointed and his compensation shall be governed by the terms of the Charter for the City of Romulus. Should the Commissioner be a permanent employee of the City, and during his term of office as required herein, retire, resign or for any reason be discharged, if he is to continue in the office provided herein for the balance of his term, it shall be at such rate of compensation as shall be supplied by the Council to the State Department of Agriculture within ten (10) days after making of such appointment.

SECTION III. Conflicting Provisions Repealed

All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are repealed only to the extent necessary to give this Ordinance full force and effect.

SECTION IV. Effective Date

This Ordinance shall become effective immediately upon publication in a newspaper of general circulation.
I, Leonard J. Folmar, Clerk for the City of Romulus, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an Ordinance duly adopted by the Romulus City Council at the regular meeting held on the 28th day of September, 1976.

Czarneke replaces Wheeler

The current administrator of the Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti, Ronald G. Czarneke, has been named administrator of the Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

Czarneke replaces Walter S. Wheeler who has been appointed administrator of the newest Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA), the Heritage Hospital in Taylor.

He is a 1961 graduate of Michigan State University where he earned a masters in business administration degree.

He has been employed by PCHA since January 1975 when he accepted the position of administrator at Beyer.

His prior experience includes three years as senior auditor and business management specialist for the Ford Motor Co. and one year with the University of Michigan.

In 1966 he was named administrator of the Crittenton Hospital in Detroit, and in 1970 he accepted the position of administrator of the Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital in Manistique.

Married and the father of two children, Czarneke is a member of the American College of Hospital Administrators, the American Hospital Association, and until June of this year was a trustee in the Michigan Hospital Association. He continues to serve on several committees for the Michigan Hospital Association.

PCHA operates Annapolis Hospital in Wayne, Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti, Outer Drive in Lincoln Park, and Seaway in Trenton. A fifth facility — the Heritage Hospital in Taylor — is expected to be opened to accept patients in February of 1977.

CITY OF BELLEVILLE

ORDINANCE NO. 76-166

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR MUNICIPAL CONTROL, MANAGEMENT, MAINTENANCE AND CARE OF STORM SEWER FACILITIES BY THE CITY OF BELLEVILLE; TO ESTABLISH CHARGES AND PROVIDE FOR THE COLLECTION THEREOF; TO ESTABLISH RULES AND REGULATIONS COVERING THE USE OF THE FACILITIES; TO PROVIDE AND PROHIBIT CERTAIN ACTS AND TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION THEREOF.

THE CITY OF BELLEVILLE ORDAINS:

ARTICLE I

SHORT TITLE

Section 1.1 SHORT TITLE. This Ordinance shall be known and may be designated as "The City of Belleville Storm Sewer Ordinance".

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply in the interpretation and enforcement of this Ordinance, unless otherwise specifically stated.

Section 2.1 CITY. The word "CITY" as used in this Ordinance shall mean the City of Belleville, whether or not so designated.

Section 2.2 COUNCIL. The word "Council" shall mean the City Council of the City of Belleville.

Section 2.3 CUSTOMER. The word "Customer" shall mean the person making use of the facilities provided hereunder.

Section 2.4 DEPARTMENT. The word "Department" shall mean the Water and Sewer Department of the City of Belleville.

Section 2.5 ENGINEER. The word "Engineer" shall mean the City Engineer or any independent or other engineer employed by the City for a specific purpose.

Section 2.6 FACILITIES. The word "Facilities" shall mean the storm sewer lines of the City and all appurtenances thereof or incidental thereto.

Section 2.7 PERSON. The word "Person" shall mean an individual, group, partnership, firm, corporation, association or congregation.

Section 2.8 STORM SEWER. The term "Storm Sewer" or "Storm Sewer Line" shall mean any sewer provided by the City for the purpose of receiving and flowing storm and surface water.

Section 2.9 SUPERINTENDENT. The word "Superintendent" shall mean the Superintendent of the Water and Sewer Department as set forth herein.

Section 2.10 WORDS. When not inconsistent with the context, words used in the present tense include the future; words in the plural number include the singular number and words in the singular number include the plural number; words in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not directory.

ARTICLE III

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 3.1 CONTROL. The Department shall have complete control over all Storm Sewer Facilities of the City and shall be charged with the operation, use, maintenance and protection of such facilities.

Section 3.2 SCOPE. No Storm Sewer Facilities of the City shall be used in any manner, except under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 3.3 STORM SEWER CONNECTION REQUIRED. Every person using property within the City is hereby required to provide an adequate connection with a Storm Sewer Line of the City, whenever one is available.

Section 3.4 INSPECTION. The Superintendent shall have the right to enter any premises and inspect any installations connecting to the Storm Sewer Facilities of the City, and may examine any of the matter being dumped into such installations.

Section 3.5 HARMFUL MATTER. If, in the opinion of the Superintendent, any harmful matter is found being dumped into the City Storm Sewer lines, causing excessive depreciation or damage beyond that generally anticipated, he shall report his findings to the City Council which may order the use of such Sewer line discontinued or may direct that an additional charge be made for the use thereof, commensurate with the additional burden caused thereby.

Section 3.6 ENGINEER'S DUTIES. It shall be the duty of the City Engineer to provide drawings, plans and specifications for the laying and connection of all Storm Sewer Lines for the City and the Department shall be required to follow all instructions as may be so provided by the Engineer.

Section 3.7 LIABILITY. The City, in supplying the facilities provided hereunder, shall use reasonable care but shall not be liable for any damages caused by shut off, break, stoppage, variation in pressure, explosion or failure of any kind whatsoever in the operation of such facilities.

ARTICLE IV

PERMITS AND CONNECTIONS.

Section 4.1 PERMIT. No person shall make or change any installations which may affect the Storm Facilities, or tap into or use any such Facilities without first obtaining a permit from the Department.

Section 4.2 APPLICATION FOR PERMIT. Permits may be obtained by making written application to the Department on forms provided by the City.

Section 4.3 PERMIT FEES. Permits will be issued only upon payment of all fees required and full compliance with all other provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 4.4 TAP FEES. For the privilege of tapping into of the City-owned or operated Storm Sewer lines, there shall be a tap charge paid to the City Treasurer for as follows:

6" or less	$25.00
8"	30.00
10"	35.00
12"	40.00
24" and over	50.00

Section 4.5 PAVED STREETS. For all storm sewer connecting or enlargements or reduction in size of existing tap in streets when the work is to be done by the City and where it is necessary to break pavement, there will be charged a minimum fee of $200.00, in addition to all other fees and charges provided for in this Ordinance. If the full cost of breaking and replacing pavement exceeds $200.00, such additional cost shall be paid before the water and/or sewer service is put into use.

Section 4.6 WORK BY CONTRACTOR. The owner of any property may arrange to have any tap or any enlargement or reduction in size of existing tap for storm sewer made by a qualified contractor. The contractor employed by the owner for such work must be a licensed underground sewer and water contractor and at the time the contractor applies for a permit, he shall submit to the department evidence of such license. In addition the contractor shall submit to the department evidence of such Workmen's Compensation covering his employees and public liability and property damage insurance in an amount not less than $100,000.00 for any person; $300,000.00 for any one occurrence and $50,000.00 property damage with such insurance being endorsed so that the City of Belleville is protected from any and all claims.

Section 4.7 CONTRACTOR DEPOSIT. Before a permit is issued to a contractor, a minimum cash deposit of $300.00, in addition to all other fees and charges provided for in this Ordinance, shall be paid to the City Treasurer. Upon acceptance of pavement replacement by the City, the deposit shall be refunded, less costs of inspection and maintenance, if any, of the damaged pavement to preserve the public safety.

Section 4.8 BREAKING OF PAVEMENT AND REPLACEMENT. Breaking of pavement shall be preceded by line drilling of four inch centers around the area to be removed. Before replacing pavement, it shall be sawcut so that all damaged and undermined pavement shall be removed. If the proposed sawcut location is within five feet of a pavement joint, the pavement shall be removed to the joint. Concrete shall attain a strength of at least 3500 pounds per square inch 28 days after placement. Backfill under pavement shall be porous material compacted to 95 percent of the maximum unit weight.

Section 4.9 BONDS. Upon request, the contractor shall furnish a performance bond in cash or certified check in an amount deemed necessary by the department to guarantee performance under the conditions of this Ordinance and the permit issued, and to assure payment of all fees and charges, the department may forfeit all or any portion of the bond which shall be necessary to cover any expense, including inspection costs or damage incurred by the department through the granting of this permit. The bond or any balance thereof will be returned to the contractor upon completion of the work to the satisfaction of the department. The performance bond provided for herein, when it cannot be returned, shall be deposited in the general fund and become a part thereof unless claimed within one year of the date of completion of the construction authorized by this permit.

ARTICLE V

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 5.1 PERMIT REQUIRED. It shall be unlawful for any person to make any connection to the City Storm Sewer lines without first obtaining a permit as provided in this Ordinance.

Section 5.2 ENFORCEMENT. This Ordinance shall be enforced by the Superintendent of the Water & Sewer Department, and no use of the Storm Sewer Facilities provided under this Ordinance shall be permitted except as provided herein.

Section 5.3 SEVERABILITY. This Ordinance and the various parts, sentences and clauses thereof are hereby declared to be severable, and if any part, sentence, paragraph, section or clause is adjudged unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of this Ordinance as a whole, or any part thereof, other than the part declared to be unconstitutional and invalid.

Section 5.4 PENALTIES. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than $500.00 or to imprisonment in the City or County Jail for a period of not more than ninety (90) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment as in the discretion of the Court. Every day that a violation of this Ordinance is continued or permitted to exist without compliance shall constitute a separate offense punishable upon conviction in the same manner as prescribed for the original offense.

Section 5.5 PUBLICATION. This Ordinance shall be published at least once in the official newspaper of the City.

Section 5.6 EFFECTIVE DATE. The effective date of this Ordinance shall be October 15, 1976.

End 10-year PTA affiliation

Mt. Pleasant parents switch to PTO

The parent-teacher group at Mt. Pleasant Elementary School in Romulus has officially become the PTO (Parent-Teacher Organization) following its first meeting of the school year.

The move by the organization severed a 10-year affiliation with the Congress of Parent-Teacher Association.

Prior to a vote on the change, members of the group listened to the pros and cons of the two parent organizations, with presentations being made by Lynn Slaughter of the Area Council of PTAs and Naurene DePalmer, president of the Cory School PTO.

According to a spokesman for the organization, the prime reason for the change centered around the dues structure of the PTA. Memberships to that organization cost $1 were, with 95 cents going to the state or national association. Proponents for the change argued that it is better to use the dues money for local projects for the parents' own children rather than support a state or national organization.

The PTA on the other hand, maintained that the support services of the state and national association alone warrants the 95-cent assessment, the spokesman said.

The parent-teacher meeting followed an open house at the school. In other action, the group surveyed parents on the continuation of the dental program, with a loss of $118 last year cited as a reason for ending it.

Miss Weng heads Beyer Memorial

Laura L. Weng has been named administrator of the Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti.

A native of Stephenson - in Michigan's Upper Peninsula - she is an honors graduate of the University of Michigan. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing in 1967, and in 1973 she completed the 2-year master's program in Hospital Administration, again from the University of Michigan.

Miss Weng's initial assignment with PCHA began in June 1973 when she joined the organization as assistant to the executive director. One year later she was named interim administrator at the Seaway Hospital in Trenton, and in January 1975 she was appointed assistant administrator of the Outer Drive Hospital in Lincoln Park.

Her additional health care delivery experience includes four years at University Hospital where she was promoted through the ranks from Staff nurse to nursing supervisor.

Miss Weng is a member of the American College of Hospital Administrators, and was selected for membership to two national honorary organizations for her scholastic excellence, Phi Kappa Phi and Sigma Theta - the nursing equivalent of Phi Beta Kappa.

Miss Weng replaces Ronald G. Czarneke who was transferred to the Annapolis Hospital in Wayne.

Volunteers sought for flu vaccination

Non-medical volunteers and volunteer registered nurses are needed to assist with the Swine Flu immunization program in the tri-county area.

Ten thousand non-medical volunteers and 200 registered nurses must be recruited to serve at immunization sites during this month and November.

Non-medical volunteers will assist with duties that include registration, screening, check-out, traffic control and tallying. To volunteer, residents must be 14 years of age or older and be able to work at least one day. Non-medical volunteers will be trained at the site, located in their communities.

Clubs, church groups and high school juniors or seniors also are encouraged to volunteer.

Volunteer registered nurses will give injections and assist with the screening. They will be trained by the Red Cross in conjunction with the Health Department. Volunteer nurses also are asked to volunteer at least one day and if possible, nurses will be placed in their own communities.

Those interested in helping with the massive immunization program can contact Margaret Waszak at the Red Cross West Regional Office at 274-5450.

Church to observe bond day

The pastor and congregation of Calvary Baptist Church of Ypsilanti will observe Bond Reservation Day this Sunday.

Members of the congregation and the public will be given an opportunity to reserve bonds, following the morning and evening services on this day.

The boards will be for refinancing the present church bonds, which are nearing maturity and initially were issued for the construction and educational facility needed for growth purposes. The church property, located at 1007 Ecorse Road, is valued at an estimated $1.5 million.

The new bonding program will be explained in its entirety for those participating in the program.

Chairman of the bond drive is Dean Reeds, who is assisted by Al Penner, vice-chairman; Mrs. Bob Hopper, services chairman; Mrs. Gene Rentfrow, publicity chairman; Bob Hopper, prospect chairman, and Paul Mooney and Max Saunders, division managers.

For further information on the bond program, contact the church office at 482-1990.

Glenn to host Farmington in homecoming

Three miles to payday

With a field of 14 teams in the fold, the Wayne Memorial annual Cross Country Invitational got off to a fast start Saturday as more than 100 harriers competed for the coveted championships. When it was all over Westland

John Glenn's outstanding senior Ted Unold had set a course record to win individual honors while Garden City East and Glenn captured sectional titles.

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Undefeated John Glenn will place an eight-game winning streak and a share of the Northwest Suburban Conference football lead on the block Friday night when a highly-touted North Farmington invades Westland.

The Rockets will have a Homecoming crowd of about 5,000 fans on hand to watch one of the key games of the league. North gave defending champ, Livonia Franklin, a 16-15 scare, while Glenn is coming off of a 26-0 league victory over Redford Thurston.

It was Glenn's sixth shutout in a row. Rocket defenders have held their opponents scoreless now in their last 26 quarters.

First year head Coach Jerry Lutri expects a "tough battle against North."

"They (North) pulled one of the upsets of the year when they beat Lahser earlier," said Lutri. "This is a big test for us - they almost knocked off Livonia Franklin last week and will be ready for us."

Franklin and Glenn lead the conference. Each sport 2-0 league records going into this week's action.

Glenn tailback Jeff Preston had "a field day" against Thurston.

The senior accounted for all four Rocket touchdowns, scoring on runs of 9, 5, 2 and 6 to bring his TD output to eight on the season.

Mark Grabowski connected on two of his four extra point attempts.

"I felt we played a nice offensive game," Lutri said. "And, obviously, our defense did the job again. We gave up a total 63 yards on the ground."

Glenn scored early in the first quarter against the hosts who fumbled four times and gave up the ball on an interception once. In that opening period, quarterback Bill Lee master minded a seven play, midfield drive that culminated with Preston going over from the nine.

Glenn exploded for two touchdowns in the second quarter to widen the margin to 20-0 at halftime.

The Westlanders had a 11-4 edge in first downs, a 292 to 74 margin in total yardage and Lee hit on six of eight passes for 121 yards. The Rockets were penalized six times for 60 yards and Thurston was slapped four four infractions for 20 yards.

"The going will get tougher each week," Lutri warned. "We can't afford a letdown now."

Belleville rally beats Allen Park

When you don't play well and win, well you'll take it anyway.

And that's the way Belleville Coach Pat Stokes felt after his Tigers came from behind to stop Allen Park 28-12 last week. It was Belleville's third consecutive Suburban 8 Conference triumph and kept them in pace with Edsel Ford for the league lead.

"Offensively we weren't sharp," Stokes said. "And we felt we were fortunate to survive under the circumstances. We didn't block all night."

Don't think Allen Park didn't take advantage of the situation. The Jaguars marched 80-yards after the opening kickoff and scored on Gene Vacca's one-yard quarterback sneak.

"We didn't even touch the ball and they had already eaten up six minutes of the quarter," Stokes pointed out.

A spectacular 71-yard kickoff return by Harold Dennis lifted Belleville's morale and put the Tigers within nine yards of the tying touchdown. In two plays, quarterback Tom Laine, who handed off to elusive Kevin Barnes for six yards, then gave the ball to sophomore Kelvin Patterson for the remaining three, had Belleville on the boards.

Roy Rutherford had an opportunity to put the Tigers ahead but missed on the point-after attempt.

Scoreless the second quarter, Allen Park broke the deadlock with a third quarter touchdown. John Kroger capped a 75-yard sustained drive by going over the Tiger goal line from two-yards out.

The Jaguars elected to try for the two-point conversion and failed.

Belleville, which had possession of the ball for six plays during the entire third quarter, turned things around in the final quarter. Early in that quarter Patterson broke loose on a 29-yard touchdown run and Barnes scored the two-point conversion to give the Tigers the lead for the first time in the game 14-12.

Allen Park didn't accomplish much in its next series and was pinned back to the one-yard line and, instead of punting out of danger, decided to give up a two-point safety.

The Jaguars' ensuing free kick went to midfield and the hosts got another break when Laine's third-down pass was intercepted. However, Allen Park tried to startle Belleville with a first down pass and linebacker Jim McCarty picked off the aerial at the Belleville 45 and carried it back to the AP 37.

Eight plays later, Patterson scored from the five-yard line. The extra point? Forget it - Belleville is having problems finding the uprights this year.

With three minutes left, Dennis intercepted a Jaguar pass which set up Belleville's final touchdown of the game. Dennis stole the ball at the Allen Park 38-yard line where Barnes later broke loose on a 33-yard touchdown sprint.

In the fourth quarter, Belleville compiled 127 of its 188 rushing yardage for the game. The Jaguars were held to minus 13 yards in the last 12 minutes.

Patterson and Barnes - Belleville's 1-2 rushing punch - accounted for 103 and 70 yards, respectively.

Dave Lundell, who sacked the Allen Park quarterback twice, and Tony Turrentine, a middle guard, sparked the over-worked Tiger defense. (Allen Park had 60 plays to Belleville's 40 plays from scrimmage).

Wayne continues role of Dr. Jekyll, Mr. Hyde

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Like Robert Louis Stevenson's thriller, "Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde," Wayne Memorial's football team continues to keep fans guessing about its true identity.

Usually playing innocently the first half, Coach Floyd Carter's gridders suddenly explode with a burst of power to overcome any protagonist on the stage.

Wayne did that again Friday night as it turned a listless first half performance into a thrilling come-from-behind 12-8 victory over Taylor Center.

The victory kept Wayne's four-game winning streak intact and also atop of the Great Lakes 8 Conference standings where it shares first place with Lincoln Park.

"I was disappointed in the way we played the first half," Carter revealed. "We didn't execute offensively and we had too many penalties."

"We were lucky to come away from there with a victory - that's all I have to say," Carter added.

It is the fourth straight game that the "Wolfpack" has kept the outcome of the game in doubt until the last seconds. This time Taylor blew an 8-0 lead.

Wayne travels to Wyandotte Friday night for its fourth league test of the season and Carter warns, "that Wyandotte is capable of beating anyone in the league."

"Their (Wyandotte's) 0-3 league record is very deceptive," Carter said. "They've lost to some very good teams by close margins."

Against Taylor Center, Wayne was bottled up in its territory most of the first half. Late in the second period quarterback Pat Bledsoe hit on a 25-yard pass to Jerry Smart, carrying the Zebras to the Taylor 13, but two plays later and a delay of game infraction, forced Wayne to punt.

That was the lone threat Wayne had going in the first two quarters. Meanwhile, Taylor took the lead on a two-point first quarter safety and increased the margin to 8-0 when the Rams clicked on a 68-yard pass-run touchdown play from quarterback Mike Fidler to Calvin Thomas who scored Taylor's lone TD of the game.

Ed Leverenz blocked the point-after attempt.

Wayne decided to play ball after the 7:51 marker of the third quarter. Wayne accepted the ensuing kickoff on its 43-yard line and Bledsoe, using the speed of tailbacks Brett Hansen and Tim Clark to his advantage, moved to the Taylor two where the senior QB sneaked in on his second attempt for a touchdown.

Taylor held a 8-6 edge after Wayne failed to capitalize on the two-point conversion.

With a little more than four minutes left in the quarter, Wayne held Taylor and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown.

Taylor gave up the ball on its 49-yard line after the kickoff and it took Bledsoe five plays to get to the Ram six where Clark plowed over the goal line, dragging three would-be tacklers with him.

Taylor threatened once after that as the Rams cashed in on a Wayne fumble at the Wayne 36-yard line with 9½ minutes left in the game. The Rams moved to the 12 where, on a first and 10, Wayne was called for illegal procedure and the ball was moved to the seven-yard line.

Wayne's Mike Plungis played a key role in putting down the Rams as he sacked the Taylor quarterback twice in the next series and tossed the hosts back to the 30-yard line where they tried a fourth down pass that missed.

Belleville's Muse is medalist

Franklin retains WW prep golf title

Though the defending champ won by a narrower margin than it did a year ago, Livonia Franklin retained its Western Wayne golf title by claiming a seven-stroke victory over its nearest challenger Westland John Glenn.

Franklin amassed a team total of 336 strokes to beat out John Glenn, which was runner-up in the field of seven teams. The Westlanders compiled 343 strokes.

It was Franklin's second consecutive and seven out-of-the last 12 WW victories.

"We're always pleased to win this tournament," said Franklin Coach Bob Visser after receiving the first place trophy at Salem Hills Country Club. "This year's competition was very keen as the scores indicate."

Trailing the two leaders were Wayne Memorial, which finished third with 348, Belleville, 359, Garden City West, 369, Cherry Hill, 377 and Garden City East, 381.

In the duel for individual honors, Belleville's Rick Muse and Franklin's Glenn Murray were forced into a "sudden death" playoff to decide the medalist.

Both golfers toured the par-71 course with 79s and the extra hole went to Muse who won his first major tournament title.

"It was very cold and the scores were fairly good considering the inclement weather conditions," said Harry Hidenfelter, Belleville High athletic director who was the tournament manager.

In the special flights, one for the athletic directors and a second for coaches, Glenn's Bill Fife captured the first place trophy for coaches when he finished the 18-holes with a 76.

Bill Hawley, Wayne Memorial's athletic director, turned in an 80 to claim top honors among his counterparts.

Terry Cole (95), Mike Balderson (101).

North gives champs a scare, 16-15

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Upset-minded North Farmington, which already has gained some notoriety by beating the then seventh-ranked team in the state, Bloomfield Hills Lahser, made Livonia Franklin sweat for its 16-15 victory on Saturday.

Franklin, the defending Northwest Suburban Conference and Class A state champ, pulled out the crucial victory with a fourth quarter touchdown.

It was a thrilling, defensive duel all the way," Franklin coach Ar-mend Vigna said. "We just couldn't get our offense untracked."

The victory kept the defending champs in a 2-way tie for first place in the league. They're atop of the standings with Westland John Glenn, which will test North Farmington at home Friday night.

Franklin scored what proved to be the winning touchdown with 4:53 left in the game. Dennis Smith and Ken Scarpace hooked up on a 63-yard scoring pass-run play which tied the game at 15-all, then Scarpace converted the extra point which stood up as the winning margin.

North drew first blood as the hosts scored after an initial exchange of punts in the first quarter. Mark Thompson went 59-yards with a punt return for the touchdown to give Farmington the lead.

Then, Tim Quinn, younger brother of Dan Quinn who led Franklin to a conference title two years ago and is a starting back for Wayne State, booted the extra point for North.

The Livonians slashed into North's 7-0 edge early in the second quarter when defensive halfback Larry Action blocked a North punt which North pounced on in its end zone for a two-point safety.

Following the free kick, Franklin put together an eight-play drive which included a 13-yard pass completion from Willow to Smith and a 13-yard run by Phil Yuhasz to reach the North one-yard line.

Yuhasz, on a fourth down and one, dove into the North line and fumbled, but an alert Wilson pounced on the ball for a touchdown.

Franklin lost an 9-7 halftime edge to the hosts whoscored on a six-play, 52-yard sustained drive which included an aerial attack that lifted the Northerners to the Franklin two where tailback Robert Miller lunged in for the touchdown.

"Our front four contained North's run," said Vigna. "We threw them for negative yardage 14 of their 34 plays."

Among the Franklin defensive stalwarts were tackle Robert Kielyka, and middle linebacker, Ron Kroll.

Yuhasz led the offense with 88 yards in 24 carries.

Franklin has non-conference rival Rochester Adams on its mind for Saturday. The Patriots, host for the 2 p.m. game, aren't expected to encounter any difficulty from their rivals.

BOB VISSER

OUTDOORS with GORDIE

By Gordon Charles

Drouth conditions which parched much of northern Michigan this year had an effect on a number of outdoor areas.

The biggest and most spectacular, of course, was the fire that burned off 100 square miles in the Upper Peninsula's Seney National Waterfowl Refuge and state lands adjoining it.

Nothing like that had happened in Michigan since 1911.

The same long spell of dry weather was rough on U.P. trout streams, too. The lack of water in normal amounts had a harsh effect upon springs and brooks which feed the larger rivers. Many of these streams dried up to little more than a trickle of water running between huge boulders that protruded above the nearly dry stream bed. In some places it was difficult to even see any water without a close inspection of the river channel.

By last month, the Michigamme Reservoir was exposing several feet of bottom which is normally covered with plenty of water during the fall months. The scene was equally drab in other parts of the U.P.

What the long-term destruction will amount to is hard to say at this time. But it is certain that the loss of bottom insect life was nearly complete in many streams.

Trout that managed to escape being trapped by the low water will have very little upon which to feed when they finally return on higher water and begin scrounging for normal insect larvae in the streams.

None of this is a complete loss to the angler who thinks ahead, though. What happens if the bigger streams keep their low water levels on into the winter? How can steelheads, migratory brown trout, coho and chinook salmon get into the streams on their customary fall runs?

Quite obviously, they can't if the streams don't have enough water. Instinct, however, will bring the fish back to the same river mouths and, while they may not be able to swim upstream, they will be quite apt to hang around and wait for the water situation to improve. Even if levels should come up, it will take quite a lot in some of the rivers to allow even a four-pounder to head inland up one of the U.P. streams. The bigger trout and salmon will just be out of luck.

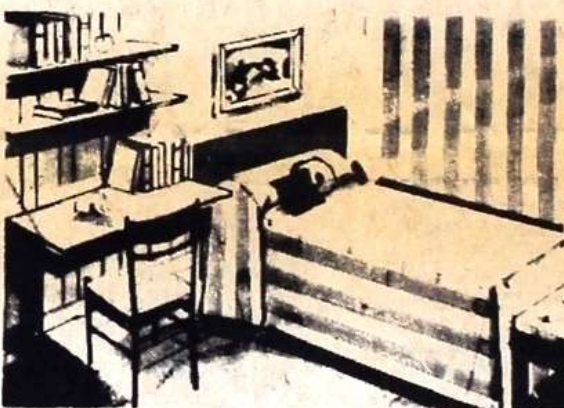

Fishermen won't be so luckless, though. At least, the smart ones won't. They will know that there will probably be abnormally large concentrations of big, trophy-sized fish lurking out in the waters of the big lake. And, chances are, this harsh change in their customary fall migration will have the fish in an ugly mood.

A fish that can't run up a stream to spawn is probably going to be upset enough that he will smack the heck out of the first fishing lure that plops down close by. The result could be some of the most spectacular fall fishing for trout and salmon that Michigan has ever seen!

Just off the stream mouths or close by will be the ideal spots for anglers to start flinging their favorite trout and salmon lures.

Wayne harriers edged, 28-29

Despite Kevin Miller's first place, an up-and-coming Dearborn Heights Crestwood cross country team handed Wayne Memorial its first setback in dual meet competition.

Wayne was edged by its non-league rivals 28-29, snapping a four-meet winning streak.

Miller toured the three-mile home course in a respectable 15:50, beating Crestwood's outstanding junior, Tim Barr who was clocked in 15:54.

AUTO FACTS

By Chester Kosin

It has been estimated that some 300 different pilot models of the U.S. automobile were produced by Americans during the 1890's. By 1900 there were at least 57 American automobile plants producing about 4,000 cars annually. Most of them were assembled from purchased parts and required no heavy initial investment. A typical automobile plant might have consisted of a dozen mechanics working in a converted barn. And of course, the first of the early cars to catch the public eye were immortalized in song.

Baldwin: 'We're playing without pride or purpose'

You can't blame Tom Baldwin for wanting to forget about it.

After all, Ann Arbor Huron's 50-12 victory over Romulus was the worst defeat any of his football teams had ever suffered.

And with Toledo DeVilbiss coming to town on Saturday, the Romulus coach doesn't know what to do to get his Eagles back on the winning track.

"We're playing without pride or purpose," Baldwin said after the Eagle sustained their third loss in four starts. "We led Huron 12-8, then fell apart. Just died."

Baldwin felt that Andy Orgovan's defensive performance and Kelly Summerfield's quarterbacking were the only bright spots in the game.

"Huron is a good football team," Baldwin said. "We made them look even better."

However, it was Romulus that got on the scoreboard first. Early in the first quarter Wallace Brown grabbed a bad Huron pitchout and ran 55-yards for a touchdown with less than two minutes elapsed.

The Eagles elected to go for the two point conversion and missed.

Ann Arbor tied then went ahead after the ensuing kickoff when Dan Spriggs culminated a sustained drive and scored from 15-yards out. A pass from Juan Morton to Spriggs gave the winners the two-point conversion.

Romulus refused to die...at least not then. The Eagles retaliated with their second and final touchdown of the game when Summerfield led a 36-yard, six-play march to the Huron 36 where tailback Rodney Summers took over and went the distance for the score.

Huron came back and scored on the ensuing kickoff to take the lead 16-12 once again, then added two more touchdowns in the second quarter and turned the close game into an easy rout with seven and 13 points in the final two frames, respectively.

Obviously, the stats show a lopsided edge in Huron's favor as the winner amassed 20 first downs to Romulus' two and rushed for 413 yards to the Eagles' 37.

3rd quarter letdown spells 17-12 defeat for Churchill

"We played good enough to win, but it's the final score that counts." That's how Churchill Coach Ken Kaestner summed up the Chargers' 17-12 setback at the hands of Northville last week. Churchill blew a 12-3 halftime lead as Northville scored one touchdown in each of the last two quarters.

"It was a discouraging game for us," Kaestner said. "I'm proud of our players — we have a young team, and the reason why I'm disappointed is because I felt we played well enough to win this one." The loss left Churchill with a 1-3 over-all and a 0-2 Western Six Conference record.

Northville took a 3-0 first quarter lead when it cashed in on a field goal. However, Churchill countered with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter as Doran Mason plowed over the goal line from the one yard line to cap a 65-yard drive.

Mason, who carried the ball 23 times for 79 yards, also scored the second touchdown. That TD was set up by Pat Fabian's fumble recovery on the Northville 35-yard line.

Mason eventually took it in from the 10-yard line on an off-tackle slant.

Northville came back in the second half and connected on a 65-yard scoring pass-run play as Doug Marzonia teamed up with Greg Harper for their first touchdown of the game.

Matt Davis, who realized a 27-yard field goal, kicked the extra point to turn it into a 12-10 ball game.

A short punt that bounced off of a Churchill defender led to the Chargers' demise as Northville recovered at midfield. Then, with 3:31 left in the third quarter, Marzonia and Kevin Corcoran hooked up on a 40-yard touchdown pass.

Davis again kicked the extra point.

Northville's ground attack, which has helped to keep the Colts undefeated, had a difficult time getting by Churchill linebacker Tim Curran and Steve Coleman who sparked the Chargers' defense.

Churchill seeks its first league win of the season Friday against Waterford Mott, which will bring a 3-1 and 2-0 league record into the game.

"Mott has the biggest line that we're going to meet this year," Kaestner said. "They're a big and physical team."

Glenn girls win league swim opener

Unsuccessful in its two out-of-the league meets, Westland John Glenn launched the defense of its Northwest Suburban Conference girls' swimming title with a convincing 107-47 victory over Redford Thurston.

Coach Jean Garbus Rockets swept 10 of the 11 events, letting the 11th event — the freestyle relay — slip away because of a disqualification.

The Westlanders captured the medley relay with a foursome of Rhonda Discher, Rene Hudson, Daena Noel and Candy Black who churned a 2:30.4.

Then, Sondra Kengle turned in a 2:34.0 to win the 200-yard freestyle and Miss Noel came back with a 2:51.8 to capture the 200-yard individual medley. Miss Black's 30.9 effort for the 50-yard freestyle was the best time in that event.

Diver Kathy Mahakian piled up 139.4 points to win the diving competition.

Spartans down, but not out

Cherry Hill may be down but any team seeking the Tri-River Conference football title shouldn't count them out.

That's the warning issued by Spartan Coach Jerry Pawloski after a 27-3 loss to defending champ, Taylor Kennedy, last week.

"We're moving the ball, we're playing defense," said Pawloski. "And I feel we're still going to knock off some of the contenders before this is all over with."

Cherry Hill runs up against Garden City West Saturday on the Spartan field. West is coming off of an impressive victory over Riverside. Riverside has defeated Cherry Hill this season.

"We're the underdogs against West," Pawloski admitted. "They beat Riverside and we lost to them but we're going to give West a good game."

It was a good game against Kennedy.

For one two quarters the Spartans held the champs who turned a close 7-3 halftime edge into a 20-3 advantage in the third quarter.

"They intercepted a ball that went right through one of our receiver's hands and was tipped. They ran it back for a 65-yard touchdown in the third period," Pawloski related. "That was the straw that broke the camel's back."

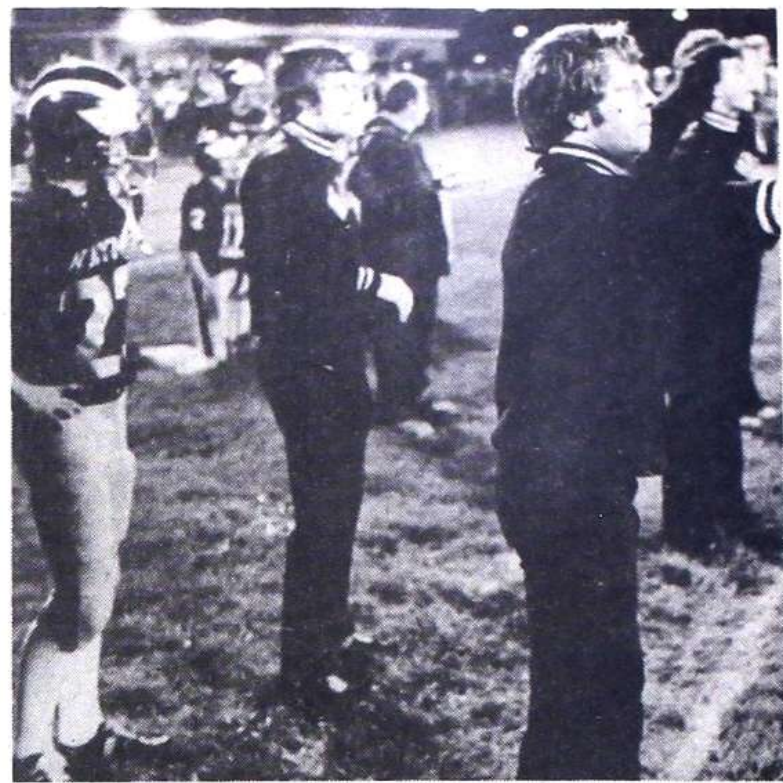

Cherry Hill averted the shutout late in the second quarter when the Spartans recovered a Kennedy fumble at midfield and quarterback Scotty Dawson engineered a drive that left the Spartans five-yards shy of a touchdown.

Two quick passes didn't get Dawson anywhere so, with 14 seconds left, Pawloski called upon Mike Minor to kick a field goal. Minor connected on a 27-yarder — only the second successful field goal in the school's 11-year history.

Minor led Cherry Hill's ballcarriers with 52 of the team's 131 total yards. He rushed 11 times. The Spartans also had 10 first downs to Kennedy's 13 and fumbled three times, losing two ball twice. Kennedy also lost two of its three fumbles.

Pat Pudelek, Cherry Hill's middle guard, sparked the Spartan defense, collecting seven solos and three assists to bring his yearly output to 30 tackles and eight assists. Teammate John Sweet and Dan Finnson also got their share, combining for 14 tackles between them. Finnson also recovered a Kennedy fumble.

Russ Duncan, a sophomore, was credited with five solos and two assists and Jim Steudle picked up six unassisted tackles.

Another close call

Flanked by assistant coach Chuck Howton (at right) and player Jerry Smart (at left), Wayne Memorial head football coach Floyd Carter holds his breath as his Zebras stage another one of those last half rallies.

Wayne did it again Friday night as it came from behind to nip Taylor Center 12-8 to remain undefeated on the year. It was the fourth time this season that a late surge has saved the undefeated Wayne team.

Westlander eyes WSU pass reception mark

Junior split end Dean Morrison of (Westland-Livonia Franklin) continues to climb the Wayne state career receiving ladders.

After two seasons and four games of a third campaign, the 6-1, 185-pounder tops the 76 Tartars in receiving with 18 grabs for 290 yards.

With 52 career receptions, he rates third on the all-time list behind Terry Fuller who caught 67 passes in the 1969-71 period and Jim Johnston who had 66 grabs in the 1950-52 period.

Morrison's 6-for-84 showing in last week's 20-12 loss to Ferris State pushed his career yardage total to 966, two yards behind Fuller's 968 figure.

Johnston held the previous record with 867 receiving yards. While WSU has had 10 one thousand yard rushers and several 1000-yard passers, the Tartars have never had a 1000-yard receiver.

The race for the top spot among 1976 Tartar tacklers is a tight one after four games. Senior linebackers Keith Anleitner of (Garden City-East) is in the familiar top spot for the fourth straight year with 30 primary tackles and 21 first assists, but is getting a run from junior linebacker partner Randy Epley of (Westland-Livonia Franklin) with 27 tackles and 22 assists plus senior defensive end Vic Vereecke (Detroit-Cody) who has 24 tackles and 14 assists to top the defensive linemen.

Verecke leads the team in passer sacks with five for 34 yards while Epley has a pair for eight yards in losses including a safety at Howard.

Waynite is NMU goalie

Sophomore goalie Jan Plevak, a Wayne Memorial grad, was called on to make 10 saves for Northern Michigan University in its 2-0 loss to Michigan State.

Miss Plevak raised her total for the season to 20.

Northern Michigan's field hockey team now has a 3-1-2 record.

Registration set for Wayne sports

The Wayne Parks and Recreation Department is accepting registration for its 1976-77 sports leagues.

The basketball league will begin competition in November and managers are urged to sign up their teams as soon as possible. For further information, telephone the recreation offices at 721-7400.

The Wayne Community Center's "Winter Drop-In Golf" program is also on the drawing boards. Interested golfers may use the facility during the week. There is however a $2 registration for Wayne residents and a $4 fee for non-residents.

The program will run until March.

Wayne's mixed volleyball league will be held Wednesday evenings at Ben Franklin Junior High. Teams must have an equal number men and women in their lineups.

Teams interested should contact the recreation offices for further information.

Glenn, East claim Wayne CC titles

Unold tops 'field of 100' in record-setting time

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

With one of the best high school cross country fields ever to gather for the meet, Westland John Glenn and Garden City East unseated Livonia Churchill and Cherry Hill as the area's cross country kings.

The showdown came at the annual Wayne Memorial Invitational, staged during Saturday's brisk weather and slippery turf "down on the flats" at Wayne High.

Glenn, which also had the top performer in the meet in senior Ted Unold, garnered 45 team points, to dethrone perennial powerhouse

Churchill for the Section Two championship. Coach Jerry Szukaitis' Rockets had an eight point cushion over the defending champ, Churchill, which finished with 53 points. Trailing Churchill in the division were Trenton (61), Dearborn Heights Crestwood (82), Garden City West (120), Romulus (143) and Dearborn Heights Robichaud (190).

Unold, an All-Area selection for the past two years, led a pack of 50 harriers to the finish. The 17-year-old senior's 15:21 performance not only won the Section Two individual title, it also was the best time turned in for the day and was two seconds off the Wayne course record.

East had little difficulty taking the Section One title as the Panthers amassed 47 points, a gap of 16 points ahead of its closet rivals Belleville and Wayne Memorial, which tied for second place with 63 points each.

Wayne Memorial however was awarded the runner-up trophy in the section as the Michigan High School Athletic Association tie-breaking rule was used to break the deadlock.

Wayne did have the satisfaction of placing 1-2 in the section as Kevin Miller led teammate Rick Blaha to the finish line. Miller's winning time was 15:49. Blaha was clocked in 15:49.

TED UNOLD

At the finish line

Leading teammate Rick Blaha to the finish line is Wayne Memorial's Kevin Miller who toured the three-mile Wayne Memorial course in 15:49 to place first in the Section I phase of the invitational. Wayne, however, ran second to Garden City East in the division which captured its first Wayne Invitational Cross Country Meet. In the Second Section, Westland John Glenn unseated defending champ, Livonia Churchill.

Canton falls to Harrison

Plymouth Canton learned the hard way why Farmington Harrison is ranked the No. 7 Class A team in the Metro-West area this season.

Farmington exploded for two touchdowns in each of the first two quarters en route to a 47-6 route over Coach Dave Schuele's Chiefs.

Canton escaped the shutout with one minute left to intermission. Quarterback Doug Smith caught Farmington's defense napping and connected on a 51-yard pass-run touchdown play with Jim Meadows.

"We just met a fine Harrison ball club," said Schuele whose team heads for Walled Lake Western Friday night. "We were no match for them."

Tar/Taste Theory Exploded.

Taste-science breakthrough gives low tar MERIT the flavor of cigarettes having 60% more tar.

By locating certain flavor-rich ingredients in cigarette smoke, ingredients that deliver taste way out of proportion to tar, researchers at Philip Morris have disproven the theory that cigarette flavor depends on the amount of tar that goes with it.

They've discovered how to pack flavor—unprecedented flavor—into a cigarette that delivers one of the lowest tar levels in smoking today.

The discovery is called 'Enriched Flavor.' It's extra flavor, natural flavor, and only MERIT has it.

© Philip Morris Inc. 1976

9 mg. "tar," 0.7 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette by FTC Method.

Warning: The Surgeon General Has Determined That Cigarette Smoking Is Dangerous to Your Health.

Tests Verify Taste

In taste tests involving thousands of cigarette smokers like yourself, MERIT was reported to deliver as much—or more—taste than current low tar leaders.

What's really startling is that these brands have up to 60% more tar than MERIT.

You've been smoking "low tar, good taste" claims long enough.

Now smoke the cigarette. MERIT. Incredible smoking satisfaction at only 9 mg. tar.

KOUBA, JOSEPH F., age 71 of Taylor, after a long illness. Born in Detroit, September 25, 1905 and in 1914 moved with his parents Frank and Mamie to a farm on Wayne Road south of Romulus. He is survived by his wife Ruth (Oehring) Koubas, his brothers Edward, Walter, and Charles, and his sister Mrs. Alice Nichols. On April 16, 1943 he was honorably discharged after seeing wartime service with the U.S. Infantry. After leaving the armed services Mr. Koubas joined the U.S. Postal Service where he served as a rural carrier in Romulus for thirty-three years. He was president of the rural letter carriers association for ten years and served in many categories at their state and national conventions. While a carrier he was proud to receive two national safety council awards. He received the "expert driver and superior accomplishment award" and the "one and two million mile safe driving" awards. Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society or to St. John's United Church of Christ in Wyandotte. Services were held October 4th from the Taylor chapel of the Howe-Peterson Funeral Home.

MEMO TO: REAL ESTATE SALESPEOPLE

Do you feel that you are not given enough floor time? Do you feel that the company you work for does not spend enough money advertising? Have you given thought to the benefits of joining a company that is active in equity buying thus giving you an opportunity to obtain more listings as well as sharing in the equity profits?

These questions (plus many others) are well worth thinking about. Our present floor has only 7 full time salespersons and our feelings have always been that in order for one to make money they must be given a full opportunity on the floor with enough hours so as to get calls and leads to permit high earnings. If you feel that you would like to discuss our program, please call Steve Barrer or Lew Grossman for a confidential appointment.
